VOL XVII. NO. 101. TOLEDO, OHIO, TUESDAY AUGUST 16, 1892. LAST EDITION. TWO CENTS.

IN THE BEE TO-DAY

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau. Toledo, O., Aug. 16, 1892.

The area of high pressure still covers the country from Kansas to the Atlantic coast, and as far south as Mississippi, and will continue to dominate the weather over the eastern half of the country during the the next 36 hours.

A second area of high pressure is advancing from the extreme northwest, and will cause cooler weather in this section the last of the week. The storm which was central over Montana yesterday has increased in energy and magnitude, and is central this morning over South Dakota.

Fair weather has prevailed in all sections and rains have fallen only on the Gulf coast, New Orleans reporting 2.30 inches during the past 24 hours. These rains are caused by a cyclonic disturbance which is now central in the Gulf of Mexico.

The temperature has fallen about 10 degrees over the extreme northwest, and in all other sections of the country it has risen slightly or remained stationary.

Forecast for Toledo and vicinity—On Tuesday, fair, continued warm weather, followed on Wednesday by showers.

Must be avoided, or you buy at your own risk—anything purporting to be Doctor Pierce's medicines, sold by unauthorized dealers at less than the regular prices. You risk the getting of old bottles refilled, dilutions of the genuine medicines, imitations, and substitutes.

To prevent all this, and to protect the public from fraud and imposition, the genuine guaranteed medicines of Dr. R. V. Pierce are now sold only through druggists, regularly authorized as agents, and at the following long-established prices:

Golden Medical Discovery (for Liver, Blood and Lung Diseases), $1.00. Favorite Prescription (for woman's weaknesses and ailments), $1.00. Pleasant Pellets (for the liver), 25 cents. Comp. Ext. Smart-Weed, 50 cents. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, 50 cents.

Dr. Pierce's remedies are the cheapest you can buy, for you pay only for the good you get. They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or you have your money back.

A Train Load of Working Italians

Piled in a Heap With Broken Cars.

Six of the Men Were Killed Outright.

And a Larger Number Seriously Injured.

The Construction Train Was Going at Full Speed When the Accident Occurred—Coroner Investigating.

Coshocton, O., Aug. 16.—The Toledo, Walhonding Valley and Ohio railroad, a branch of the Pennsylvania system, now in course of construction, experienced its first horrible mishap last night, six miles north of here, at a point known as Richeson's gravel pit. Six human beings were crushed to death and 15 others terribly injured. The list of killed is as follows:

FRANK GILLA, an Italian, aged 44, head crushed.

WM. RAFFERTY, aged 50, head crushed.

JOHN BARRY, of Newburg, O., aged 50, head crushed.

JOSEPH BYCROFT, of Burlington, Vt., aged 28, throat torn and body crushed.

JOHN HALLIGER, head crushed and disemboweled, aged 50.

JOHN FLYNN, aged 25, back broken.

The Injured.

Frank Hughes, aged 85, head crushed; will die. William O'Toole, Portsmouth, O., aged 20, injured in abdomen. John Hagans, Charleston, S. C., aged 33, injured in head and legs crushed. Pat. Conners, Canton, O., 28, injured in head and breast and collar bone broken. Martin Ward, Pittsburg, aged 45, injured in the hip and back. John Zeigler, aged 23, hurt in the head and side. James Riley, aged 50, contusion of hip; has been a track layer for the past 16 years. Patrick O'Brien, aged 74, of Akron, O., skull fractured; will die. Hugh Morrison, Altoona, Pa., aged 46, hurt in head and back. Patrick Costello, aged 65, left foot crushed. Morris Collins, aged 45, of Allegheny City, terribly bruised on head. John Erickson, a Swede, aged 38, feet crushed. Patrick Roach, aged 51, crushed arm and shoulder. Michael Mulahy, of Red Barrington, Mass., aged 25, contusion of shoulder and side. Henry Long, aged 40, leg wrenched.

The Cause.

The cause of the horrible mishap is as follows:

A construction train in charge of Conductor Humphrey and Engineer Clyde has been hauling gravel from the pit. The killed and injured were engaged in ballasting the roadway at a point three miles north of the pit.

Last evening, after the last train had been unloaded, the men boarded the cars that were being pushed ahead of the engine to come to their boarding camp, a little south of the pit.

The train was running at a hazardous speed, and when it arrived at the gravel pit, which was to be passed without stopping, the switch was open and the train entered the siding and collided with some empty cars standing in the pit.

The greater number of the workmen were seated on the first and second cars, and when the long train turned in upon the spur, had no opportunity to jump.

Ten of the cars were piled in a mass of debris, and beneath this the poor mortals were crushed.

It required two hours to extricate some of the dead and injured.

A number of Italians employed on the work were attending services at the Catholic church yesterday in this city; otherwise the list of fatalities would have been largely increased.

The men were in the employ of McArthur Brothers, contractors, and when Superintendent Wells was asked for the cause of the accident he said somebody left the switch open.

The camp to which the dead and injured were brought last night presents the scene of a battlefield.

Under one tent the six dead bodies are lying side by side and from the adjoining tents the moans of the wounded and dying can be heard. Rev. Father J. Macquett, of this city was summoned and he administered the last sacraments of the Catholic church to Frank Hughes and Patrick O'Brien, who are in a dying condition. All the physicians of the city and neighboring villages are on the ground rendering aid to the sufferers.

Coroner Miller began an inquest to determine the cause by which the men came to their death.

SUSPICIOUS CASE.

A Woman Found in the Street Where She Had Been Stoned to Death.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Mattie Looney, 50 years old, was murdered in Cobb county, a mile beyond Marietta, on Saturday. Her body was terribly mutilated, and it is believed she was decoyed from her home and stoned to death. Will Ellis, a young man of 30, who has been living with her, has disappeared and cannot be found. The woman had willed him her entire property.

CAME BACK IN GOLD.

The Remains of Russell Benedict Arrive in New York.

Danbury, Conn., Aug. 16.—The body of Russell Benedict, who died in Austria, July 25th, reached here yesterday in a solid silver casket, elaborately embellished with gold.

On the top is a gold crucifix two feet long. The casket is carried by means of eight gold handles, and is supported by six lions' legs. Festoons of gold flowers are draped around it. On each of the corners is a gold angel, six inches high. Mr. Benedict was a very wealthy man, who lived many years in Austria. He was born in this city.

DEATH AWAITED HIM.

Col. Kennan's Child Dies While He Was at Denver.

Norwalk, O., Aug. 16.—(Special)—Howard Kennan, the 9-year-old son of Col. C. L. Kennan, of the Fifth Regiment, O. N. G., of this city, died last night of diphtheria. Two weeks ago the colonel's daughter, Edith, died of the same disease.

Col. Kennan, who was absent from home with Norwalk commandery at Denver, returned this morning.

BOUND FOR THEIR HOMES

Camp Buckeye is but a Beautiful Remembrance.

Gov. McKinley and the Toledo Naval Reserve.

Scenes Incident to the Closing of a Most Successful Annual Outing.

Camp Buckeye, Aug. 16.—(Special)—The camp of the First artillery is at an end, and a very successful camp it has been.

There has been much hard work done, and some excellent drilling and target practice. The advent of Gov. McKinley and staff was the event of yesterday.

They were entertained in town by the city council and the officers in camp, a lunch was served at headquarters' mess, after which the governor and staff reviewed the dress parade and left camp in the evening. The governor seemed much pleased and interested in the regiment and the workings of the camp and he complimented Col. Bunker highly for his excellent command.

After dress parade the party held an informal reception and then left camp.

Early in the evening the different batteries began packing their baggage and putting the guns in shape for shipment. The guns of Battery D were loaded on the cars and started for Toledo.

Tents were struck this morning and the soldiers left for home. Battery D left Newark at 8:30 and will arrive in Toledo this afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Toledo's Naval Reserve.

While in camp yesterday afternoon, Col. Bonner, of Toledo, who is a member of the governor's staff, presented Gov McKinley with the petition from Toledo people requesting him to muster in the naval reserve that is being organized. In doing so he made a brief address, stating the object of the naval reserve and the enthusiasm manifested in Toledo over the project. There were 70 names on the list.

The governor stated that he did not exactly know what could be done, but he would give it careful attention and act favorably if possible. He then referred the petition to Gen. Entrekin for the purpose of having the law on the matter looked up.

General Entrekin stated that under the present law, it was his impression that the only way to get the naval reserve into the service of the state was to muster the men in as a company of some of the regular land forces, infantry, cavalry or artillery, and then detach them for a naval service.

Lieutenant Wilson, of the regular army, spoke to the governor and called his attention to the necessity of trained men for naval service on the lakes. He considered that the movement for a naval reserve is one of the most important steps that had been taken in the national guard for years.

The members of the governor's staff were present at this time and in the general discussion of the matter nothing but favorable comment was heard.

A Concert.

On Sunday evening the colored men accompanying Battery D, gave a delightful concert in the mess tent and a large audience was present and the splendid singing was well appreciated.

The following is the program:
First tenor—G. A. Hilman.
Second tenor—Wilbur Asberry.
First bass—Boyd Jenkins.
Second basts—Leonard Lucas.
Night Shades—Quartet.
Old Zip Coon—Quartet.
Lone Grave, ballad—G. A. Hilman.
Guitar duet—Hilman and Allen.
Buck dance—R. Jenkins.
Mollie O', ballad (W. J. Scanlan's latest) G. A. Hilman.
Stood on the Bridge at Midnight—Quartet.
Guitar duet—Hilman and Allen.
Medley—Quartet.
Stump speech—Leonard Lucas.
Wind Up—Quartet.
Taps.

Leggins have been issued to the different batteries.

The men of Battery D are well pleased at the trade of guns.

Corporal Brooks acted as sergeant in charge of the third section for two days.

Buglers Farrar and Armstrong of Battery D, sounded the retreat Monday night.

Crporal Blossom, of Battery D, had charge of the litter squad Monday evening at dress parade.

The "big four" color guard, Sergeants Tanner and Kapp and Corporals Hurbut and Blossom have received many compliments.

A KENTUCKY RUMPUS.

It Was Brought Over the River and Settled in Ohio.

Portsmouth, O., Aug. 16.—A Kentucky family feud which has existed for some time between the Mussers and Harmans was reopened at a Sunday school picnic on Schultz creek on Sunday.

Frank Musser spoke to Harman with the intention of smoothing the old quarrel over. Harman drew a knife and gashed Musser twice. They were separated and Harman started to walk away. Turning around he saw that Musser had drawn navy revolvers and made for him with his knife. He was shot in the wrist and groin and mortally wounded. Musser has not yet been captured.

STABBED IN A QUARREL.

Boston, Aug. 16.—Alexander Borgess was stabbed by Ernest Rippo on Hanover street last night in a quarrel. One of the wounds is considered very dangerous. Borgess was taken to the hospital and Rippo is under arrest.

A WAITING GAME.

Serious Condition of Affairs at Buffalo.

Troops Take Charge of the Railroad Yards.

The Strikers Are Filling Up on Bad Whisky

And Threaten to Kill Any Body Who Turns a Switch.

The Opening Hours of the Day Were Peaceful But It May be the Calm That Generally Precedes the Storm.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug., 16.—Capt. Butler, of the Forty-first seperate company in this city received orders at midnight to assmble his men at the state armory in reariness to go to Buffalo if called on. The entire command is now in readiness awaiting marching orders.

Auburn, N. Y., Aug., 16—Capt. Kirby, of the Second seperate company in this city has received orders to hold his commasd in readiness for marching orders to proceed to Buffalo. Already members of th company are assembling at the armory.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Capt. Butler, of the Forty-second separate company, has been ordered to have his company ready to move to Buffalo at a moment's notice.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Capt. Hess, of the First, and Capt. Henderson, of the Eighth separate company, each received the following telegram this morning from Col. Clifton, assistant adjutant general of the Fourth brigade, Buffalo: "Be prepared on short notice to assemble your company."

In accordance with thes instructions, both companies have been ordered to assemble at the arsenal this evening at 8 o'clock, in readiness to go to Buffalo if necessary.

TROUBLE AHEAD.

Strikers Swear They Will Kill the New Men.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 16.—It was nearly 3 o'clock this morning when the regiments of militia reached the scene of riot in the Erie and Lehigh Valley yards beyond East Buffalo.

Then they filed out of the trains and were formed in skirmish lines along the tracks. Here and there a body of strikers or sympathizers could be seen, but they kept quiet, awed no doubt, by the appearance of the troops.

The early hour of the morning wore away without any disturbance. The track on both sides of the line for half a mile was guarded by soldiers, while the balance of the regiments were holding their camp with stacked rifles ready for an emergency.

The situation this morning has a serious look.

The militia is in control of all the yards of the road.

The strikers have been drinking and are as ugly as any body of men can be.

They say they will not permit any of the men who have been brought here by the Reading to go to work, and that if any attempt is made to put them in the yards they will kill them.

When the new men are put to work they will be under the protection of the militia, and will work under the cover of the rifle and the bayonet.

Sheriff Beck has assured the railroads that they will have all the protection he can give them.

Up to 10:30 this morning neither side has made any advance and the situation is one of waiting.

It is learned this morning that the action of the sheriff in calling out the militia was very timely. Previous to their arrival at the yards half a hundred strikers acted as a picket guard to prevent the entrance of any new men. Rumors were flying that another outbreak was intended for an early hour this morning when the torch was again to be applied.

The strikers moved in and out of the yards with the utmost nonchalance and when called by the police to come back disappeared in the shadows of the freight cars.

The situation at 9 o'clock last night was extremely critical. Not a train had moved since noon and even the mail train was stalled.

By midnight, however, the stalled trains had gotten away, the strikers being cowed to some extent by the news that the troops were on the way to the yards.

When the troops arrived the strikers retired. One hundred and forty men were thrown out in picket line and every man had 38 rounds of ball cartridge.

The New York Central authorities this morning notified the sheriff that a strike was expected in their yards and requesting protection. Up to noon, however, the Central switchmen had not been called out and trains were moving as usual.

The strike assumed a threatening appearance again this morning at 11 o'clock and matters look very serious at East Buffalo.

The strikers are concentrating at William street, and the two regiments are being brought together near that point to move on them.

A detachment has just been sent for to go to the Tifft farm, and have gone on a double quick.

An engine and two cars are waiting in the Erie station at Michigan street to take a car load of switchmen to the yards to go to work. It is expected that there will be serious trouble when they arrive in the yards.

Most of these men are Reading men brought here yesterday. The yards are under martial law.

MURDERED BY A CONVICT.

A Broom Contractor Killed at Jackson.

His Skull Was Crushed in and He Never Spoke After He Was Hit.

Jackson, Mich., Aug. 16.—Wm. Cuddy, half proprietor of the prison broom contract, was murdered at 4 o'clock yesterday by convict no 1075, Henry Blackman.

The deed was accomplished while Cuddy sat in his chair at his desk writing, the skull being crushed in three places. Nobody except the convict was with Cuddy at the time, and as the latter never spoke no account of the act can be given but what Blackman himself admits.

Blackman is a lifer, having been sent here from Pontiac for murdering his mother and sister and then burning the house above their bodies. He has always been considered mildly insane.

STAND BY LIZZIE.

Miss Borden Receives Encouragement From the W. C. T. U.

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 16.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Young Women's Union held a special meeting last night, at which they passed resolutions of sympathy for and unshaken faith in Miss Lizzie Borden, who is treasurer of the Young Women's Union and has been prominent in union work.

TOOK THE TRIO.

Man, Bear and Boy Killed by a Bolt of Lightning in New York.

Loon Lake, N. Y., Aug. 16.—An itinerant Italian, a boy and a bear who have been traveling through the mountains, took shelter on Saturday night under a tree, when a terrible rain storm came on. A flash of lightning struck the tree, splitting it open, tore open the skull of the man, passed down his body into that of the little son, whose foot touched that of the father, and passing through the boy killed the bear. The bodies were buried together.

GLADSTONE AT OSBORNE,

The Queen Received Him Very Cordially,

And Royal Hangers-on Immediately Followed Suit.

Generally Believed that the New Premier Has Assured the Queen that the Enpire Will be Kept Intact.

London, Aug. 16.—Contrary to the popular impression of those who know best the feelings of her majesty, Mr. Gladstone had a warm reception at Osborne.

Although Queen Victoria does not like Mr. Gladstone's politics, she has the respect of a veteran for a veteran and is known to be grateful to Mr. Gladstone for the tact and skill with which he has often intervened to protect the royal family from radical assaults in parliament.

Her majesty talked with Mr. Gladstone for half an hour in private. Of their conversation of course nothing has been revealed. All that has reached the public from the royal precincts is that Lord Salisbury himself was never treated more cordially.

This attitude of the queen toward the liberal leader is commented on cynically by Keir Hardie and others of his stamp, who seem to think that Mr. Gladstone should have forgotten that he was a gentleman and the queen a lady.

The conversation between Mr. Gladstone and the queen took place in the royal drawing room with no one present but themselves.

Mr. Gladstone left Osborne at 10 o'clock this morning. At Cowes a great crowd of spectators was assembled and they cheered the new premier over and over again, it being noticeable that the henchmen of the royal household were just as demonstrative as the rest of the people.

Yesterday they were a little reserved, but the news of Mr. Gladstone's favorable reception had got abroad and the dependents of royalty took their ue from the queen.

At Southampton it seemed as if the whole city had poured out to meet Mr. Gladstone, and as the royal yacht approached, carrying him to the landing place, the cheers of the people were heard far out on the waves.

Mr. Gladstone, his face beaming with satisfaction, bowed repeatedly to the people who rent the air with their shouts and hurrahs. It was evident to everybody from the appearance of the premier that his interview had been satisfactory.

On his way back to London Mr. Gladstone received another great ovation at Basingstoke.

The crowd was different at Southampton. They were mostly country people assembled from far and near on the news that Mr. Gladstone had passed the day before and was on his way back to-day.

It was a peculiar gathering, including substantial farmers in broadcloth, ordinary workingmen and yokels in their yellow frocks.

There was a notable absence of the squires, the most conservative element, and still bitterly antagonistic to the liberal leader.

The agricultural laborers cheered heartily and struggled to get a glimpse of the man who had given them the right to vote and to whom they now looked for some share in the acres they and their ancestors had cultivated.

Mr. Gladstone graciously recognized the popular enthusiasm and devotion.

At Waterloo station the Londoners were out in force to greet the new prime minister and he was cordially cheered as he made his way from the train to his carriage.

Mr. Gladstone will make known to-night the names of the new ministry.

The news of the pleasant interview between Mr Gladstone and her majesty has caused much satisfaction in this city and scared financiers are getting over their demoralization. The general impression is that Mr Gladstone has satisfied her majesty that the interests of the empire will be vigilantly conserved and protected and that there will be no weakening in the foreign relations of Great Britain.

It is known that Queen Victoria's great wish and ambition is to hand down the empire intact to her successor and that she is thoroughly opposed to any policy that would mean the alienation of any part of it.

Therefore the public belief is that Mr. Gladstone has entirely reassured her majesty upon that point, and business men say that if the queen is satisfied they ought to be.

JIM ASHLEY, JR.,

Speaks on the Work of the Ann Arbor

In Building Boats—It Is in Pursuance of an Agreement Long Since Made—Big Thing for Toledo.

The Bee several months ago announced the transfer boat scheme of the Ann Arbor Railroad company, which was at that time a project on paper, but has since developed into more substantial proportions, and further stated that these boats would transfer freight across Lake Michigan from Frankfort Mich., to Kewaunee, Wis.

Two of the crafts are under construction at Craig's shipyards at the present time, and one of them will be launched September 15.

These boats transfer trains across the lake and connect with a railroad line which is now under construction, into northern Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Speaking with a Bee on the subject this morning James M. Ashley, Jr., said: "Before winter the Ann Arbor will practically be running trains across Lake Michigan and up into Wisconsin and Minnesota."

"Are you building the line in Wisconsin?"

"No. It is the performance of a contract. About a month ago the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan Railroad company entered into a traffic contract with the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western company. The company at the time owned 412 miles, to a point near Omaha, and stipulated to build 112 miles to St. Paul, Minn. This 112 miles is under construction at the present time. We agreed to build the boats and operate them in transferring our trains across. We expect to bring iron ore to Toledo and take back coal. The contract goes into effect as soon as the first boat begins running."

Last evening the reception committee met at Friendship hall and completed arrangements for receiving the visitors.

Badges were distributed to the members, and sub-committees were appointed to meet the delegates at the various depots and escort them to their respective hotels. All the hotels, with the exception of the Jefferson, made reasonable terms, and the Boody house was selected as headquarters.

Arrangements were completed for the trip to Perrysburg on the steamer Wellington R. Burt this afternoon. Delegates will be furnished tickets free, and an enjoyable time is anticipated.

Friendship hall is being beautifully decorated, and the committee in charge was hard at work last night. The finishing touches were given the hall this forenoon.

A special joint meeting will be held at Friendship hall this evening, when it is expected that President Daly and other officials of the union will be present and make addresses. President Sugrue has issued a special call for the meeting to-night, and a large attendance is expected.

The choir of 50 voices for the services at St. Francis de Sales' church to-morrow morning has closed its rehearsals. Mass will begin at 9:30, and Rev. Dr. Quigley will deliver an address to the delegates and members. The following are the chief principals in the choir:

Soloists—Mrs. F. W. Machen, Miss Effie Obermiller, Miss Anna Meilink, Miss Anna Van Dusen, Mr. Tom Bower, Mr. Dan S. Bourdette, Mr. Ed J. Goulet, Mr. Henry Cressey.
Pianist—Miss Rose Clouse.
Organist—Mr. August F. Machen.
Violin—Mr. Arthur E. Trost.
Clarinet—Mr. Phil. Uhl.
Trombone—Mr. Jos. Uhl.

This forenoon President Daly appointed a special committee on the preliminary work of the convention and also a special committee to notify delegates of the up-river excursion on the steamer Burt this afternoon.

The following amendments to the constitution will be submitted to the convention to-morrow:

1. Delegates to conventions of the order shall be paid mileage and per diem. Mileage at the rate of 5 cents per mile each way and per diem at the rate of $2.50 for actual attendance during the sessions of the convention. To provide for payment as above mentioned, the national officers shall fix a per capita tax sufficient to cover this and all needed expenses of the order.

John J. O'Rourke, Sarsfield, 579.
Jas. A. Brady, Phila. Nat. Cath., 155.
F. J. Timmons, John Lee Carroll, 390.

2. J. J. Derham offered an amendment to the constitution, article 1, to have the title of the union read, "The Catholic Benevolent Union."

3. By the national executive committee of 1891 and approved by the committee on constitutional amendments of the Scranton convention: An amendment to the constitution, of Art. 13, providing that all amendments to the constitution offered at any convention, must be signed by at least the representatives of three societies, to entitle them to consideration, and that amendments offered between conventions must receive the approval of at least one society of the union, to entitle the same to consideration.

4. Proposed by the A. M. Kelley society of Philadelphia: To change Art. I, Sec. 1, to read "The Catholic Benevolent Union," as the title of the organization.

5. Proposed by the Rev. Thomas J. Barry society of Philadelphia: To strike out "Irish" in the title of the union so it may read "The Catholic Benevolent Union of America."

6. Proposed by the Archbishop Ryan Society of Philadelphia: To add to Art. III., Sec. 1, "Spiritual Director," so as to make that an additional office in the union, and to insert in Sec. 3, the words "except the Spiritual Director," so that it shall read "All officers-elect, except the Spiritual Director, shall be installed at the meeting at which they are elected."

7. Proposed by the Edward J. Sourin society of Philadelphia: To amend Art. I., by adding Sec. 2, "No amendment affecting the title of the union shall be considered by any annual convention within five years after a decision on a similar amendment shall have been given."

8. Proposed by the St. Gertrude society of Philadelphia: To strike out the word "Irish" in the title of the union, so it may read "Catholic Benevolent Union of America."

9. Proposed by the A. M. Keiley society: To amend article 3, section 1 of the national constitution to read after the words, "shall consist of" to add "a spiritual director who shall be a member of the hierarchy. His expenses to and from the convention to be paid from the national treasury."

10. Proposed by the A. M. Keiley society: To amend article I, section 5, to read "that all societies be taxed alike."

11. Proposed by the St. Gertrude's society of Philadelphia: To amend article 11 of the national constitution, to strike out the words "Shall not be used for any other purpose than to defray the actual expenses of the union," and insert therefor the words "The funds of the national union shall be applied to the payment of the expenses as now provided for."

12. Also amending Article V., Section 1, to insert the spiritual director as one of the officers to receive pay when attending conventions.

13. Proposed by the Archdiocesan Union of Philadelphia: To amend Section 8 of Article VI., as follows: Local unions of societies existing in any particular archdiocese or diocese may be formed by two or more societies, and all societies within the archdiocese or diocese shall be eligible and invited to membership therein. Where such local union shall be established, there shall be allowed them for the organization of new societies the sum allowed to union organizers for the same purpose, and shall be entitled to such representation in the convention of the national union as hereinafter prescribed.

14. Add a new section to be Section 4 of Article VIII.: Each local union of this union shall be entitled to one delegate or vote for each 1,000 members or fractional part of not less than 250 members over and above the first 1,000, and such vote may be cast by one or more of the delegates present representing such union.

JOHN J. TIERNEY,
Pres. I. U. I. C. B. U.
JOHN E. DAVIS, Secretary.

15. Proposed by James D. Howley society of Philadelphia: To amend Article IV., Section 3, by striking out $700 and inserting $500.

16. Also amending Article IX., Sections 2 and 3, so that it will read as follows:

Sec. 2. Withdrawal Cards.—A member in good standing of any society of the union desiring to affiliate himself with any other such society, shall receive a withdrawal card from the society of which he is a member entitling him to recognition in any society to which he may apply. Such withdrawal card, when issued, shall free such member from all obligation to the society from which he has withdrawn, and entitles him to membership in any society to which he applies for admission similar in object and character to his own; provided he complies with the requirements of the constitution of the society to which he has applied—age, initiation fee, and any provision prescribing a certain term of membership before the right to benefits (if the member is beneficial in the society issuing the withdrawal card) only excepted. And further providing that the above section shall only apply to members removing from one city or state to another, unless two or more societies located in the same city or county shall mutually agree to allow their members the privileges accorded by this article; when so, they shall be fully empowered to do so.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of the secretary of any society to which a withdrawal card has been presented, to acquaint the society issuing the same, that the said card has been presented and accepted by such society, whereupon said member shall cease to be a member of the society issuing said card.

The failure of any society to comply with the provisions of this article, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and be punishable by expulsion of said society upon conviction thereof.

The present officers of the union are:

President—T. M. Daly, Philadelphia, Pa.

First vice president—John J. Behan, Kingston, Can.

Second vice president—Mrs. Kate Reilly, Toledo, O.

Treasurer—Hon. Michael Glennan, Norfolk, Va.

Secretary—Martin J. Griffin, 711 Sansom street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Executive committee—John M. Higgins, Richmond, Va.; John B. Ratigan, Worcester, Mass.; Richard Haggerty, Camden, N. J.

CARL MARKSCHEFFEL'S DEATH

The Worn-Out Body Will Be Reduced to Ashes by Cremation.

The end of a long and painful illness came last night, to Mr. Carl Markscheffel. His death occurred at 9:50 at his home, on Monroe street. His disease was cancer of the stomach and his severe illness dates from December last, since when, he has been confined to the bed, a helpless sufferer.

Mr. Markscheffel was born in Geherden, near Hanover, Germany, in 1832, and so was in his 61st year at the time of his death. He came to this country with his parents and brothers and sisters in 1849, and the family settled in Wood county. His father, the Rev. Carl Markscheffel, was pastor of a Lutheran church, the membership of which included many well known and respected citizens of Toledo, Guido Marx, E. W. E. Koch and others.

In 1873 the firm of Markscheffel & Brothers was a prosperous one occupying double stores on Monroe and Summit streets, doing large trade in fancy groceries, fruits, choice wines and liquors, etc. Reverses overtook the firm, but the business was continued with varying success until the encroachment of disease made it imperative that Mr. Markscheffel should retire, when it passed into other hands.

In an appreciative sketch in the morning paper it is said: "Mr. Markscheffel was a highly cultivated gentleman, particularly in music, of which he was a capable master, and in which he found great pleasure. He composed several operettas of merit, some of which were produced in the old Germania hall. Widely read, both in German and English literature, Mr. Markscheffel was a charming companion, his information covering a variety of topics, which, with his travels, made him the possessor of a valuable fund of knowledge. Modest and retiring in his habits, liberal in his views and genial in his manners he had a wide circle of friends who will mourn him."

The members of the Markscheffel family are his wife, Mrs. Louise Markscheffel, and their son, Master Carlos Markscheffel, a lad of 16 years. Of his father's family there remain, Mr. Wm. Markscheffel, Mrs. Dr. Finneberg, Mrs. E. W. E. Koch, and Mrs. A. Earnst, of Toledo.

Through all the stress and anxiety of the weary weeks, Mrs. Markscheffel has bravely and uncomplainingly borne her burden of sorrow and has weekly contributed her columns of bright thoughts and social news to her paper, the Journal. She has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in her time of trial. She has a noble son entering into young manhood, for her comfort and solace, and the literary work in which she delights will lead her thoughts away from the dark days in her life's calendar.

The funeral services will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) at 4 p. m. Dr. Jennings, assisted by Dr. Cravens, will speak the final words of comfort and hope. According to Mr. Markscheffel's well-known belief and request, his remains will be taken to Detroit for cremation. This method of disposition of the dead body also meets the wishes and approval of his family. The bearers of the dead, chosen are Messrs. Marx Brand, Lenk, and C. C. Packard.

WORKING UP A BOOM

Republicans Enter the Campaign With Earnestness.

A Big Fight to Catch the First Voters.

The Alliance in Virginia—General Political Mention Gathered From All Over the Land.

New York, Aug. 16.—At 7:30 this evening nearly every republican club in the country will hold a meeting in response to the call issued by Chairman Clarkson of the national committee of the national league of republican clubs.

Hundreds of responses have been received at the headquarters of the league in this city. The object of the movement is to stimulate the organization of marching clubs and young men's clubs throughout the country.

It is especially urged in the call that first voters and boys be included in the movement, and that no pains be spared to secure tasteful uniforms, and novelties that will add to the attractiveness of the processions in which clubs the will take part.

It is also suggested that bicycle clubs, cavalry clubs, and clubs made up of men employed in the protected industries would add to the attractiveness and value of the oragnizations in campaign work.

In the cities and thickly settled communities the clubs are requested to form into regiments and the regiments into brigades. A standard of American colors has been offered as a prize to the state league sending the largest and best drilled brigade to the national league convention to be held in Buffalo in September.

Virginia Politics.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 16.—The relative strength of the republican and democratic parties in this state will be largely influenced by the action of the farmers' alliance convention which is being held here to-day. A fusion is said to have been arranged between the third party and the republicans. They will cast their votes for the third party candidates for congress, and for the republican presidential ticket. Many members of the farmers' alliance, however, are refusing to support the third party.

The majority of this element will vote with the democrats, and herein lies the latter's hopes of success. If enough of these can be weaned away from the alliance to support the democratic candidates the state will go for Cleveland by a small majority, and most of the congressional candidates will be returned.

The indications now are that the third party men will capture the convention, and that the democratic alliance men will bolt. With one or two exceptions all of the present members of congress from this state will be renominated.

RELIGION IN SCHOOLS.

Morey and Ireland Have a Talk.

An Interesting Subject Discussed by Two Able Men in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—A special from St. Paul, Minn., says: The Rev. L. H. Morey, a Presbyterian clergyman, of Stillwater, gives the following account of an interview between Archbishop Ireland and himself:

"The archbishop charged the public schools with being godless and professed a desire to introduce religious elements into them.

"I suggested that when I went to school we recited the Lord's prayer and read from the Scriptures, and asked how they were driven out. He confessed that it was largely owing to Catholic protests.

"I again suggested that committees of all religious denominations meet and formulate a ritual to be used as a text book containing religious instructions that would not be objectionable to any sect and that no persons of good morals could object to. He objected on the ground that I would not confess to the Catholic idea, admitting that what the Catholics wanted, was the teaching of the Catholic religion in the schools.

"He cited an instance, in which the state legislated in a matter of religion, requiring the observance of the Sabbath, and remarked that the state did not do that for the sake of religion, but to require the observance of Sunday as a day of rest. He then said: 'Why not legislate immediately in that way in the matter of the public schools?' claiming that by such a plan the state would immediately arrange religion.

"I objected to the Sabbath as not being a parallel case, the Sabbath being common to both Catholics and Protestants, but that the Catholic religion which he was advancing in his plans was not common to both Catholics and Protestants.

"The archbishop frankly admitted that the Protestants' conscience had good reason to be offended when Sisters of Charity were introduced into the public schools and placed over Protestant children.

"I asked if I might infer from that that the garb of the Sisters of Charity had a teaching force. This he practically admitted. The archbishop is an astute and plausible talker. But, as I said to him, his plan involves the impossible condition of putting religious instruction by the state in schools which is contrary to the laws and conditions of the state.

"I suggested that this plan was one that could stand only on its merits, and in the eye of the law this religious element robbed it of all merit. He seemed confident that some compromise would be arrived at by which the difficulties would be met. I gained from him the information that his efforts are by no means considered at an end."

FROM WHICH DISTRICT

Will the Successor of Warwick Be Elected?

A Complicated State of Affairs Arises to Bother Both Political Parties.

Canton, O., Aug. 16.—The death of Congressman Warwick leaves the question of his successor for the unexpired term one of doubt. Opinions here among the leaders in both parties differ as to whether his successor shall be elected from the old Sixteenth or the new Eighteenth district.

The old is strongly democratic and the new almost as strongly republican. A decision of the question is looked for with much interest, as it determines the politics of the new member. As to the personality of the successor, it has scarcely been considered.

In the new district Thomas Morgan, of Alliance, has been nominated by the republicans, and there are 10 or 12 candidates to go before the democratic convention next month. Among these are John C. Welty, John McBride, Anthony Howells and Lewis, of Alliance, all of Stark county, among whom a candidate will probably be selected if the election fall to the old district.

If to the new, a Mahoning or Columbiana county man will probably be selected. There are not even conjectures on the republican side at present.

E. H. Archer, of the railway commissioner's office, who is an expert on congressonal matters in Ohio, was sure the old district would elect, and pointed out that if the new district elected, Mahoning and Columbiana counties would have two congressman representing them in adjourned session of this congress, and Wayne and Holmes would be without any.

STATE CAPITAL NOTES.

Money Turned Over to the State Treasurer.

Columbus, O., Aug. 16.—Gov. McKinley to-day turned over to the state $15,441.25 which had been collected by the government for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home.

Secretary of State Poorman made his quarterly settlement to-day with Treasurer of State Cope. The amount of his fees, turned over, for the past three months was $46,452.80.

Hon. W. H. Kinder, superintendent of insurance, to-day placed in the state treasury $3,482.49, fees for the quarter ending to-day. This shows an increase of $561.74 over the same three months (May 15 and August 15) last year.

The following officers were commissioned by Adjutant General Pocock to-day: Major Charles Hathaway, Fifth infantry, Cleveland; J. Milton Philips, Newark, O., first lieutenant Company C., Seventeenth infantry.

Two enraged convicts, James Clark, an eight-year Columbia county man, and John Conroy, a notorious crook from Jefferson county, had a desperate fight in the dining room during meal time to-day. Guards separated them before either was hurt.

ITS TENTH BIRTHDAY

Frank E. Sibley's Camp, S. of V., Celebrates

A Most Enjoyable Affair at G. A. R. Hall Last Evening—Music, Addresses, and a Good Time.

There was a birthday party at G. A. R. hall last evening. Mark E. Sibley Camp Sons of Veterans was ten years old. The event was appropriately observed. There were numerous friends present and all seemed to be enjoying themselves. Bugler R. A. Kidney opened the exercises by sounding the reville and closed them with taps. After prayer by Gen. P. S. Slevin and the singing of America by all assembled, Post Commander William G. Baldwin welcomed everybody in a happy address. George W. Stevens of the Bee sang several songs. Rev. W. H. Sloan, commander of Volunteer Post, G. A. R., delivered a brilliant address, a clever composit of wit, sentiment and timely advice. Miss Emma Logan sang a pleasing solo. Mrs. E. M. Irving, president of the Woman's Relief Corps, spoke in a pleasant manner and pledged the hearty co-operation of the ladies of the corps. Mrs. Irving also gave a recitation in her inimitable manner. Harry McMasters, of Akron, gave a drum solo, imitating a battle in a most realistic manner. It was one of the best things of the evening. Post Division Commander Harry R. Bacon spoke of the order and Gen. P. S. Slevin talked in his happy strain. Ed Kruse rendered a piano solo in good style. Altogether, it was a very enjoyable program.

Mark E. Sibley, Camp No. 1 of the Ohio division was mustered on the 15th of August, 1882, and was named after Mark E. Sibley, a son of Mrs. Ruth Sibley, who served in Battery H, 1st O. L. A. Chauncey S. Bigelow was the first captain, and Gen. J. W. Fuller, Gen. C. L. Young, Capt. P. H. Dowling, Capt. B. F. Miller and Rev. H. M. Bacon the first advisory committee. The camp grew rapidly and soon numbered 60 members. While in the past ten years the camp has seen many ups and downs it has never surrendered its charter, and is to-day one of the most flourishing camps in the Ohio division. When the two branches of the order in Ohio were consolidated in 1885, the number of the camp was changed to 18, and it is now known as Mark E. Sibley Camp No. 18, division of Ohio, S. of V., U. S. A.

Officers of the camp are: Camp commander, W. R. Chilcote; senior vice commander, W. R. Cleary; junior vice commander, Charles Saltzgaber; first sergeant, Henry C. Neubert; Q. M. sergeant, John A. Livermore; camp council, W. G. Baldwin, Madison Felt, W. T. Gilchrist.

A ROAD CONVENTION

Is in Session in the City of Des Moines.

The Whole State of Iowa Sends Delegates to Consider the Highways.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 16.—Almost every city, town and county in the state of Iowa was assembled in the road convention which met in the Young Men's Christian association hall at 10 o'clock this morning. The convention was called to order by Chairman J. C. Cummings, of the committee on arrangements, and is composed of over four hundred delegates, representing the farmers and business men about equally.

E. H. Thayer was elected temporary chairman, and introduced Governor Boies, who welcomed the delegates to the capital city, and assured them of his co-operation in any movement looking toward the improvement of the highways of the state.

The meeting was also addressed by Hon. A. C. Tupper, Charles A. Schaeffer, Hon. Peter A. Dey, S. H. Mallory, Maj. Hoyt Sherman, Hon. James Wilson and Hon. N. B. Holbrook. Each of the addresses was followed by a general discussion. The convention will hold another session to-morrow.

FINDLAY GOSSIP.

Glass Works Start Their Fires Again—General Mention.

Findlay, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Aaron Fellers, aged 42, dropped dead from paralysis of the brain. She had been engaged in her accustomed duties during the day.

Rev. W. N. Yates, pastor of the First Church of God in this city, has accepted a call to the First Church of God in Philadelphia.

The prohibitionists of Hancock county at their convention in this city nominated candidates for county officers as follows: Sheriff, H. J. Rutledge; treasurer, J. G. Hull; recorder, S. G. Harrington; auditor, S. F. Shafer; commissioner, Levi Bright; infirmary director, A. E. Miller.

Findlay's four flint glass or tableware manufactories have resumed operations after the summer shut-down, giving employment to about 1,500 persons. The United States Glass company, the tableware trust, which has two factories here, has just declared a 4 per cent. dvidend on both common and preferred stock.

An effort will be made here to break up the early closing system after the expiration of the agreement with the Clerk's union in September. Some merchants claim it drives the farmers away, though there are not a few who favor early closing. The Clerks' union has recently been nearly broken up by dissensions among its members, but promise to unite again in an early closing campaign.

DEADLY HICCOUGHS.

A Portland (Ind.) Man Has Them for Ten Days.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 16.—Emanuel Reed is strangely afflicted, and the physicians are puzzled about his case. For the past 10 days he has been hiccoughing steadily, and nothing can be done to relieve him. His chances of recovery are very poor.

$20,000 FOR AN ASYLUM SITE.

Alliance, O., Aug. 16.—A largely attended mass meeting of citizens was held to hear reports of committees on location of the Northeastern Ohio asylum. Pledges for $20,000 with which to purchase the site were soon raised. The commission appointed by Gov. McKinley to select the site will report September 1.

CAMP FIRE AT STEUBENVILLE.

Steubenville, O., Aug. 16.—E. M. Stanton post, G. A. R., gave a camp-fire to a crowded house in the opera house. Among the speakers were I. F. Mack, of Sandusky, department commander, and W. H. Searles, of East Liverpool, vice-department commander.

READY FOR THE RACE.

Great Time Among Yachts at Cleveland.

Kilrain Comes Out for John L. Sullivan.

Games of Ball Played in Various Places—Standing of the League—Amateur Notes.

Cleveland, Aug. 16—(Special)—The first day of the great yacht regatta opens with a nice breeze and clear air, and everything points to a successful contest.

The breakwater basin presented a busy scene last evening up to the time for firing the sunset gun. The yachts which had arrived from other ports for to-day's regatta lay at anchor, a number of the Cleveland pleasure vessels having sailed into the river to make room for them. The visiting crews were engaged in attaching to their mainsails the large squares bearing the numbers assigned to them, and in making other final preparations for the races.

The schooner Wasp was decked out in full colors. Among the visiting yachts were the sloops Shamrock, Alice Enright, Lulu B., and Surprise, of Detroit; Fanchon, of Toledo; Merle, of Buffalo; Carmencita, of Erie; Ino, of Port Huron, formerly of Toledo, and Maretta, of Fairport; the schooner West Wind and the cutter Louise, of Buffalo. Among the Cleveland yachts which will participate in the regatta are two new boats, the sloop Meteor and the cutter Mona.

The large sloopyacht Minx, which was at one time owned in Cleveland, was expected to arrive last night. She is said to be in fine racing trim, but as the Wasp, which is the only yacht here that can class with the Minx, does not expect to go into the race there will be no contest.

The yachtsmen held a meeting at the Forest City house last evening. Commodore George W. Gardner was made chairman and L. G. Sears secretary. The commodore welcomed the visitors to the city and expressed his gratification that so many were present.

He then said that the meeting had been called for the purpose of having the program and other subjects relating to the regatta discussed. He said the Cleveland Yacht club had prepared a program which they thought would be satisfactory to all, but in order that there should be no dissatisfaction the visitors were invited to suggest any changes which would make the regatta more successful.

The visitors applauded this generous offer, and several of them suggested alterations in the classification and in the sailing miles.

Commodore Gardner explained why the features to which attention had been called and engrafted in the program, and when the reasons for them were made known all objections were withdrawn.

The commodore announced that Mr. W. J. White's steam yacht, Say When, would carry the judges, Mr. C. B. Lockwood, of Sandusky, Commodore Joseph Nicholson, of Detroit, and Mr. J. de Zellinski, of Buffalo; the time keepers, Mr. W. J. Akers, Mr. W. J. White and Col. George H. Worthington; the regatta committee, consisting of Messrs. Phil. T. Wright, W. R. Huntington, Edward Overbeke, Charles W. Kelly, Herman Lyman and Henry Gerlach; visitors and newspaper men. The Say When will be anchored at the West pier until 9 o'clock this morning, at which time all those who will view the race from her deck are expected to be on board.

A number of supplementary prizes were placed at the disposal of the regatta committee after the program was prepared and these were announced. A silver punch bowl will be awarded to the winner of the class C race in addition to $40 prize money. To the captain of the winning yacht in class E a yachting suit will be awarded. A silver trophy in the form of a cup has been prepared for the winning naptha launch, in which race there will be five or six entries.

The yachts entered for the races and their masters are: Ida K., C. H. Krauss; Carmencita, G. T. Bliss; West Wind, F. L. Bennett; Alice Enright, Arthur Pettie; Shamrock, H. C. Kendall; Merle, F. B. Hower; Fanchon, G. W. Bliss; Minx, D. C. Cleary; Meteor, B. E. Lyman; Maretta, R. C. Moody; Iolanthe, A. M. McEachren; Iris, Charles L. Parmelee; Louise, F. W. Caulkins; Lulu B., Aleck I. McCloud; Petre I., C. H. Christie; Compeer, C. Richter; Restless, F. G. Overbeke; Mott B., J. O. Gardner; Fleetwing, J. McCormick; Surprise, Charles Boston; Argo, John Barth; Sunbeam, George W. Kolbe.

Only three entries for the naptha launch race have been received, but there will be more to-day. The entries are as follows: Dearest, W. R. Huntington; Nellie, John Weber; Eugene, William DeMooy.

No classification was made last night as the measuring committee had not corrected the measurements furnished by the captains of the yachts.

New York, Aug. 16.—Jake Kilrain is a Sullivan man. To an intimate friend who visited him in Baltimroe a few days ago Jake gave his ideas of the fight. "I think Corbett is one of the shiftiest men I ever saw," said he, "but he doesn't class with Sullivan as a fighter. When I met Corbett in New Orleans I was really surprised at his cleverness. Had known how shifty he was I should have done some training. I was out pointed, but had the contest been to a finish the result, I believe, would have been different. I noticed one thing about Corbett. He doesn't like in-fighting. Every time we got at close quarters I punched away at his wind. Having one hand free I had a perfect right to do so. But he appealed to the referee and no in-fighting was allowed after the third round. I was weak when I entered the ring, but the several blows I landed made him wince. What will he do when a man like Sullivan pounds his wind? Corbett himself is anything but a hard puncher. They can all talk about Sullivan's broken-down constitution and all that. He is a remarkable man and can fight twenty-four hours at a stretch if he is properly trained."

Orilla, Ont., Aug. 16.—Gaudaur had a walk-over in the race to-day with Stephenson, the Australian. The race was three miles with a turn for $500 a side. Five thousand people witnessed the event. Betting was done at even money. Stephenson dipped his oars and gained half a length in the first 500 yards, but the men were even at the mile, after which Gaudaur took the lead, and held it throughout the race. At the turn, which was made in 9:40, the Orillian was four lengths ahead, an advantage which he increased on the home stretch, winning by 20 lengths in 20:03. From the easy pace at which Gaudaur rowed the last mile, it was evident that had he been pushed he could have lowered the record of 19:13 made by him at Duluth.

Louisville, Aug. 16.—Chris Von der Ahe evidently contemplates several important changes in the makeup of the Browns, and it is thought that at least two of his fielders are booked for releases. Third Baseman Billy Kuehne and Outfielder Jimmie Wolf to-day received telegrams from the St. Louis president asking for their lowest terms. Both players left to-night for St. Louis, although neither has signed a contract. It is very probable that in the next few days they will be covering third base and right field respectively for the Browns. It is understood that it is Von der Ahe's intention to put Crooks on second, sending Wolf and Brodie to the outfield, which means that either Carroll or Gore and Haigh will get their releases.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16.—Pete Browning may again don a Cincinnati uniform. A telegram was received here this morning from Comiskey asking the whereabouts of the Gladiator, and also information in sending his conditions. He is at present at French Lick Springs, where he has been since his release by the Cincinnati club.

A Doctor Arrested.

Dr. J. D. Sickles, of 904 Adams street, has been arrested for failing to report a case of typhoid fever. His case will be tried Thursday.

Dropped the Wads.

This morning at A. J. Rummel's gun store on St. Clair street, a shelf gave way and let a ton of gun wads down. Mr. Thomas Clever, a salesman, who was on the shelf at the time, went with it, but fortunately was not injured.

Received a Sunstroke.

J. H. Beadle, a carpenter, residing in East Toledo, received a severe sun-stroke this noon, while working on a house at the corner of Irving and Horton streets. Parks' ambulance was called and the man was conveyed to his home in an unconscious condition.

The Boys Are Off.

Yesterday 43 of the junior Y. M. C. A.'s left for camp, accompanied by Percey J. Turner, who has charge of the junior work. They will pitch their tents at Monroe pier. For the benefit of the friends and parents who wish to make them a visit the Monroe steamers will call at the point every day.

Our Country Cousins with Us.

The fifth excursion over the Lake Shore from Bryan, Archbald, Pettisville, Wauseon, Stryker, Delta and Swanton came to the city to-day, being the largest excursion ever brought from the line. The excursionists spent the forenoon at Presque Isle and this afternoon the Pastime took them out to the lake.

Will Excurt on One of the Belt Lines.

Toledo's street railroad belt lines are becoming famous. To-morrow the C., H. and D. Railroad company runs an excursion to Toledo from Lima, for the benefit of the Catholic Sunday School association of that city, and by way of special inducement gives the patrons of the excursion a free ride on the Robison belt.

The Model Pastime.

A miniature steamer, 17 1-2 inches long is floating in a tank of water in the window of Ernest Reeves & Co.'s book store. The model Pastime, which is a wonderful piece of mechanism, is the work of a young man, Mr. Allen Cumrow. Mr. Cumrow has never taken any manual training and the boat is of his own contriving. The Pastime will be raffled off.

The Honorable Billy Capellar.

Hon. W. S. Capeller, of Mansfield, is in the city to-day, on his way to the islands. The foxy politician is looking well. To a Bee he said with a wink that he was out of politics, which may or may not be so. In any event, William is one of the old-time boys, whom it is a pleasure to meet.

Buying Stolen Property.

A number of Poles have been in the habit of stealing bolts, iron, etc., from the Northwestern Natural Gas company and selling it to Rudolph Bolden, at Holland. The whole party have been arrested, Mary Lagenski, Francis Stukoski, Katie Corn, John Stukoski and Joseph Schoski for stealing and Bolden for doing the buying. The case will be tried Thursday.

Watch Thieves Galore.

There seems to be an epidemic in watch thieves. Detective Spore has twenty-three stolen watches in his possession at present. Chas. W. Christol of Maumee, was arrested yesterday for stealing a $50 watch from S. T. Struck, of this city. He will be tried in police court to-morrow morning.

Handsome Present.

Mr. Albert Shelar, who recently resigned his office as president of Justice Council National Union, to accept the position of national scribe of the Order of the Red Cross, was in the city last evening and attended the regular meeting of Justice Council. He received a warm welcome and a delightful surprise in the shape of a beautiful gold badge, National Council emblem.

Must Pay the Revenue Tax.

Hon. John W. Mason, commissioner of internal revenue, has stirred up a hornet's nest in a decision on an appeal from Chicago. The district attorney held that the gold cure institutes must pay the internal revenue taxes as dealers in spirits, since it is charged all of them give out whisky to their patients. The managers of the institutes prepared an appeal to the commissioner, who sustained the district attorney. The decision will likely cause a movement to collect the tax in every district where a gold cure institute is located.

Maumee Valley Pioneer Association.

This association holds its annual reunion on Thursday of this week, at Liberty Center. Henry county, Ohio, on the Wabash road. A special train has been engaged and will leave the Union depot at 9 o'clock a. m., and return at 5 o'clock. Great preparations have been made for a lively and interesting meeting, including dinner and lots of speeches, and it is hoped Toledo people will liberally patronize the occasion. Take a day off and learn something of the early days and events in the Maumee valley.

The Natural Gas Trustees.

The gas trustees met yesterday afternoon, and, after passing on a number of small claims, adjourned over until this morning, pending the action of the ways and means committee on the Esterbrook purchase of bonds. The committee took no action.

The board met again this morning and went over the Kerlin Bros.' claims for about $800. The claims were allowed. The trustees are in a quandary over the failure of the Boston firm to take the bonds. It ties them up so that no one else can buy them if they so desired.

The Asylum Stewardship.

The trustees of the asylum passed on the regular monthly routine business yesterday and adjourned. It wasn't a very good day, hence only thirteen candidates for the steward's office were considered. Secretary Foster and Dr. Campbell expressed themselves as for Mr. Hamlin, who was for years the steward of the Athens asylum, but the politicians had the pull on Trustee Geyser and a choice was not made. In the meantime Mr. Cahill a, very excellent gentleman continues to fill the important office with satisfaction to all concerned except the hungry republican office seekers.

Plans for the Unitarian Church.

The Bee announced some time ago that the congregation of Unitarian church had bought a lot on the corner of Prescott street and Ashland avenue, and would erect a fine new church on the site.

Plans for the building were solicited and submitted to the committee on plans, which consists of the following members: Mrs. Gilbert Harmon, Rev. A. G. Jennings and A. J. Rummel.

Last evening the committee met at Mr. Rummel's residence and inspected the plans submitted. The choice was reduced to two and the committee adjourned to meet with the trustees next Monday evening at the same place.

Fare Thee Well for the Present.

The gospel meetings which have been in progress for some weeks at the tent on Vermont avenue, were brought to a close last night, the attendance being large as usual. A praise meeting preceded an informal banquet and happy talks were made by Elder Updike, Prof. Hawes and others. The whole company joined in a social, at which ice cream and cake were served. The members of the Church of Christ are highly elated at the success attained. An interest has been secured in the tent, and the evangelist will return next year to conduct meetings. Mr. Updike has gone to his home at Fort Wayne and Prof. Hawes to Ada. This week they will open a series of meetings at Angola, Ind. Their Toledo friends will wish them an abundant harvest.

Cawood Somewhat of a Hustler.

W. E. Cawood, the jeweler, is making business these dull days by offering attractions which are drawing the people. His "ads." in the Bee's want column, printed daily, has had the effect to excite considerable interest, and the young and old who stand in line, at stated hours, as competitors for prizes to be awarded, is evidence that he has struck a popular chord. The liberal use of printer's ink gives success, not only to Mr. Cawood, but to all who advertise systematically and continually, every day in the year. Toledo's merchants, as a rule, are steady gaiters in this line, and that it pays can be noticed daily by the crowded stores. Another fact to their credit is the one that fewer failures are reported from Toledo than from any other city of its size in the country, and probably no other aid in achieving success can be found than that brought about by merchants making known their attractions through the advertising columns of a well regulated daily newspaper.

Democratic Congressional Nominee.

The republican scramble for the congressional nomination has removed the certainty which many believed to exist as to an election, and from present appearances it is more than probable that the democratic convention will have several candidates from whom to select a nominee. It is said that Dr. J. O. Allen's friends are pushing him to the front as Fulton county's choice. The doctor resides at Fayette, and is an old-time democrat, having fought battles for years for the party. Fulton county is debateable ground in this campaign as there is great dissatisfaction prevailing and it is thought that the nomination of Dr. Allen would have the effect of placing it securely in the democratic column. It may turn out that the district, figured out by Mr. Griffin and his fellow gerrymanders, may not be such a sure snap after all, which will not only be gratifying to all democrats, but a goodly number of republicans as well. In any event the democratic convention will name a candidate who will be worthy of cordial support.

The Only Complaint.

The Toledo Exposition company are completing arrangements for the finest exhibit ever seen in Toledo. The only complaint made is by a certain class who want the beer stands and "wheel of fortune." The company lose $4,000 by refusing these privileges, but as it is the purpose of the exposition to educate and elevate, it will doubtless gain in the good will and patronage of the better class of people by its refusal of everything of a debasing character. People won't have to leave the grounds to find out whether the next day will be fine or not. Mr. E. A. Hanner, United States weather observer, has received instructions from Washington to make special weather forecasts on the grounds during the exposition. Grace church has secured the large dining hall, known as stand No. 3, and will serve dinners and lunches. Mrs. L. E. Tanner, of North Fairfield, O., will have a large and varied display of fancy work, fine needle work, etc. R. A. Bartley will have forty cigarmakers at work, and has engaged an enclosed space and taken out a special license for that purpose. Mr. Thomas Tompkins will furnish an immense fish display for the aquarium.

OPENING OF THE PEOPLE'S.

A Barrel of Money the First Attraction.

The People's theater opens its season Monday evening next with A Barrel of Money The story of the piece is as follows:

Roxy, the niece of Amos Garrison, a wealthy mill owner, has been defrauded of her property by her uncle, who has, however, resolved to make restitution. Just as he is about to do this, he has a paralytic stroke which unbalances his mind. His clerk, Harrison Swift, takes advantage of the situation to secure control of the property, and by representing that Garrison was almost a bankrupt, coerces his daughter Helen into marriage. Roxy discovers the plot. She learns that Swift and Jim Rich, his accomplice, are going to the iron works at night to find the papers in the office. Roxy gets Jim out of the way and with the aid of Hy Hazlitt, her faithful adorer, she enters the works in the hopes of foiling the plot. Swift has insured the works for all they will carry, and intends to destroy them by fire and fasten suspicion on the workingmen who are about to strike. He arrives, discovers Roxy and Hy and a series of startling situations follow, which end in Swift having locked Hy in the office, drags Roxy into the engine room, and tying her on one of the huge revolving belts, sets the monster steam engine in motion. The belt begins to revolve and the unfortunate girl is only saved by Hy, who hears her cries above the din of the engine, batters down the door, rushes in and tears Roxy from the fatal bund just in time to save her life. Everything comes out all right in the last act, as is usual.

A BULL-HEADED MISTAKE.

An Injured Man Dies, Perhaps, Through Neglect.

William Sill, of 741 Thayer Street, is the Man Who Was Found Dead in a Police Station Cell Yesterday.

The man who was found dead in a cell at the police station yesterday morning has been identified as William Sill, a German, residing at 741 Thayer street.

From the evidence that is presented in the case it would appear that some one made a grave mistake. It is believed that the fall from the street car was the cause of his death. He was picked up bleeding and unable to speak intelligently. It is said that he was drunk, but allowing that he was he should not have been hurried off to a cell without a medical examination. Those residing near where the accident occurred say that the man was badly injured, as he was bleeding profusely when picked up. The blood was washed hurriedly from his face before he was taken in the patrol.

Some one is to blame for this gross neglect. Some policemen do their business like machines and never call on their brains. There are some cases where a little judgment should be used and this was one of them. The matter should be thoroughly investigated.

Str. Messenger For Monroe pier, daily, at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. Fare, 25c round trip.

The second annual moonlight excursion of the Clerks' Mutual Protective union will take place on Thursday night, Aug. 18, on the steamer City of Toledo. A fine concert will be given by the Whiting Male Quartet, and other local musical talent. Tony Leon's full orchestra will provide music for dancing. The boat leaves the foot of Madison street promptly at 8:30. A good time is assured. Tickets, 25c, Turtle Light and return.

THEY WERE EX-CONVICTS.

More Disclosures in the Strange Tip O Tip Case.

They Were All in Confinement Together and Hatched Up Their Little Game Behind the Bars.

The Tip-o-Tip case will be recalled at the mention of the name. It was one of the most peculiar cases that ever came to the attention of the police. The two white members of the gang are languishing in jail, awaiting their trial, and Tip-o-Tip is dodging the newspapers around the country, as they are all dead on to him in consequence of the airing the Toledo papers gave the gang.

Since the arrest of Rice and Wood, Detective Spore has written over 100 letters and sent as many photographs away in hopes that someone would know something about the originals. Their "mugs" were printed in the Police Gazette also.

To-day one answer comes from the head of the detective force at Chicago.

Walter Rice, with his Sunday school face and glib tongue, is not Walter Rice, but Harry Merrill, a very clever burglar and an ex-convict. He served a sentence in the Joliet penitentiary for a job done in Chicago in 1888. He was convicted again for burglary in February, 1891, and sentenced to a year in the house of correction.

It was there that he met Wood and Tip-o-Tip. Wood's right name is Dennis Ryan, alias McGuire. He is also a burglar of note. His home is not known, but he hung around Chicago. Tip-o-Tip was in the house of correction at the same time doing a sentence. His right name is Andrew Kelley, alias the Zulu.

It was while confined that the three hatched up the nove. scheme with which they worked Toledo.

Tip-o-Tip got out first and Rice and Wood came on to Toledo just as soon as their terms expired. As everybody knows, they did not enjoy sweet liberty long. Truly, the way of the transgresor is hard.

WHY GILMAN FLED.

There Was Nothing Left for Him to Remain For.

Boston, Aug. 16.—The disappearance of James E. Gilman involves greater frauds than at first supposed. The estate of Wm. F. Walker, of which he was executor, has entirely disappeared, and it is positively stated that Gilman took with him $40,000.

His total liabilities are not known, but the Walker estate represents $150,000 alone, and it is thought the total will reach $300,000.

There is reason to believe there is a woman in the case, and that she did not accompany Gilman in his flight.

CAWOOD'S PRIZES—THERE WERE IN all 473 guesses received, of which 103 were correct. Of course we could not give prizes to all, so to make it fair we selected the correct guesses on each prize bargain and placed them in a basket. Then a handsome young lady, Miss Mabel Weise, was selected and blindfolded, and it was agreed that the first name her dainty hand would select would receive a prize bargain. This was satisfactory to all present, and the prizes were awarded to the following persons, who will please call and get their prizes: Miss Eva Reid, 534 Forrer street, a silver cup; H. K. Frith, 1741 Washington street, a souvenir spoon; Mrs. Wm. Olms, 450 Hamilton street, a gold hair ornament; Grace M. Heime, 434 Delaware avenue, a solid gold stick pin; Mrs. R. A. Brinkerhoff, 215 Ontario street, a set of Rogers' Bros. spoons; Miss Grace Wright, 23 Irving street, a diamond ring. It pays to read our advertisements. W. E. Cawood, Jeweler. p

Fretful Babies.

828 Huron St., Toledo, O., July 17, '92.
Hand Medicine Co., Gentlemen:

My baby is now three months old and has had colic all her life. We gave her all kinds of remedies without any beneficial effect. I was almost discouraged in trying anything else when a friend told me of your Dr. Hand's Colic cure. I gave her 12 drops which acted like a charm. Now as soon as I discover she has wind colic I give her one or two doses which relieves her entirely. I want to advise all mothers who have fretful babies to use Dr. Hand's Colic Cure. I will hereafter always keep it in the house.

Lord Salisbury's protection speech is his chief humiliation now. The grand old man with his nineteenth century enlightened ideas and his democratic principles is glorious in his victory.

Ex-President White, of Cornell university, thinks "the business interests of the country are for the republican party."—Organ.

It will be interesting, some day, to have the "business interests" of the country as distinguished from the general interests, clearly defined.

Nearly all the big iron and steel mills of Pittsburg have signed the Amalgamated scale, which means a victory for the workmen. Now go to work and vote straight in November.—New York Recorder.

A victory for the workmen, indeed! In every instance they have submitted to a reduction of 10 per cent. in wages. But the point is, vote for your masters in November for they are able to lock you out altogether, if they see fit.

The record of trusts crushed out by the Sherman law fails entirely to materialize. The conviction is coming home to the people that that law was intended simply as an ornamentation for the statute book and a campaign stimulus. On the other hand the multiplication of trusts and combines goes on, even as strikes and lock-outs multiply. It isn't a new law on the books that is needed, but a wiping out of some old laws.

Secretary Foster is reported to have said that he "got the chills when he learned that the newspapers had become aware of the passage of the gold train across the country and drew a breath of relief when the safe arrival in New York was announced" Does the Honorable Secretary mean that he was afraid the newspaper press would rob the precious train? That is left for the fellows in authority to do later on. As an interviewed man the distinguished Buckeye is a most conspicuous failure.

Women do most of the farm work in Europe. That is the condition to which the free traders want to reduce the women of America.—Exchange.

The silly New York organ from which the above is clipped must care little for its reputation to put forth such editorial gabble. The broad-shouldered, broad-hipped peasant woman in the fields of Germany or France is no more the slave to be pitied than the delicate fine-strung American woman in a hot and dark city attic making men's overalls for four cents a pair or men's shirts for six cents a dozen. Moreover, the countries of Europe where women do the farm work are protected by a tariff tax similar to our own. It would be quite as well for the present to leave woman out of consideration of the industrial problem, politically considered. What she is able to do for herself bears no relation whatever to the "protection" she receives.

Californians will make a desperate effort in the coming state campaign to down the railroad monopolists that dominate the state. They realize they have a job of great magnitude on hand and are willing to make great sacrifices to the end of its accomplishment. The San Francisco Call urges the formation of a non-partisan legislative ticket. It says, "an issue of greater moment to the state than any party victory, is presented; the regulation of railroad charges and the retirement of the political bosses the Southern Pacific company hav created are issues greater in their relation to this state than politics. Republicans and democrats may act together for the accomplishment of these purposes without the least sacrifice of party standing." An outsider might inquire through what party manipulation did the Southern Pacific bosses get their grip on the state? And why were Californians blind and quiescent enough to permit it?

GOOD REPUBLICAN LOGIC.

Every man who voted for the Mills bill is "a rabid free trader bent upon destroying American industries"—every one but Knute Nelson. He is all right because "the McKinley bill has a longer free list than the Mills bill."

THE UNREST OF LABOR.

"America for American laborers" and "America, the paradise for labor," are all in papers and books. Never before, in the history of the country, has labor, generally, exhibited such unrest. Never were strikes so many and so far reaching. What labor, the labor of skilled hand and brain, of muscle, strength and industry, has accomplished, is manifest in the wonderful growth and prosperity of the country. Why, then should labor be struggling for rights and recognition?

The most thoroughly contented class in this country are the comparative few who have amassed fortunes which give them "the run of the globe" and the best the age affords in every country. The millionaires of the United States are the marvel of the civilized world. Princes and potentates behold with amaze the splendor of their modes of life and of travel.

These are the actual conditions of life in this republic which was founded on the principles of equal rights for all before the law and even justice for every individual. What are the conclusions? Does labor demand more than its share of returns? Is labor demanding more than its dues? Manifestly not, for the politician the pulpit and the press are all studying the problem aloud. The politician is attempting to prove to the laborer the blessedness of his condition under his wise guidance. A portion of the press attempt to appease him by showing him how much worse off he might be. Others of the press assure him that his liberties and rights are slipping away from him—that he is submitting to be bound with chains, the lock and key of which are in the hands of self-elected masters.

The constantly recurring question is, why is labor thus disturbed and obliged to strike blows, sharp and strong, approved and disapproved, in its own defense. By natural conditions this broad fertile, resourceful country is the laborer's paradise. What, then, is the cause of all his discomfort and unrest? There can be but one conclusion: the legislation of his government is all against him and has been for a long term of years. Insomuch as every workingman is a sovereign, with the ballot in his hand, what is his redress? These are the vital questions for study before the voter is ready for November.

DENVER REPUBS.

Denver, Aug. 16.—Chairman Blanchard arrived here this morning, and will preside over the deliberations of the State League of Republican clubs at their convention to be held this evening. Mr. Blanchard, by virtue of his position as chairman of the sub-committee of the national committee of the National League of Republican clubs, will pass upon the credentials of the different organizations desiring to be placed on the roll of the state league. He will also make arrangements for the representation of Colorado at the national convention to be held in Buffalo in September.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Contracts Awarded and Some Salaries Raised—Proposition to Sell Property School Purposes —Minor Matters

The regular meeting of the board of education was held last night, all the members being present.

The resignation of Miss Kate Sumner was read and accepted.

Mr. Conrad, superintendent of buildings, reported that the High school floor was beginning to sag. Mr. Conrad was authorized to employ help and examine the floor and make necessary repairs.

Mr. Arnold Machen was present and in behalf of the people of the Seventh ward, presented a petition, asking that the board purchase a certain site of land, which is located at the corner of Delaware avenue and Fulton street, for school purposes. There are 150 feet on Fulton street and 250 feet on Delaware avenue, in the piece of land. He stated that the location was a mile from either the Monroe, Sherman or Warren street schools, and, owing to the crowded condition of the various schools, it would only be a matter of time when a school in this locality would be demanded. It is considered good property, and at present could be purchased at low figures. The matter was referred to the building committee, to report at a future meeting.

The following bids proved to be the lowest for the erection of the new Sixth ward school: G. T. Kerrush, materials for drain pipe, $130; G. Leichtenmagen, ruffle stone work, including labor and material, $550; Wernert & Burr, all cut stone and range work, including labor, $820; Gorman Bros., all brick work, including labor and material, $3,414; C. O. O'Neil, all lathing and plastering including labor and material, $850; J. I. Kerrush, all carpenter and joiner work, including hardware, labor and material, $3,654.53; William J. Albrecht, painting and glazing, including labor and material, $594.45; G. & C. Kloeppinger, galvanized iron, tin and slating, including labor and material, $1,839; M. Donovan, wrought and cast iron work, including labor and material, $380. On motion of Mr. Kohn the contracts were unanimously awarded to the lowest bidders.

Prosecuting Attorney Barber called attention to the fact that there were back taxes on property owned by the board amounting to $748.23 up to date, and the treasurer now demanded payment. The amount was ordered paid.

Bids for stone walks at the Sherman street school were opened. The contract was awarded to S. Clark at 14 cents a square foot.

Col. I. D. Smead was present and Mr. Kohn made a motion that Mr. Smead's proposition, made at a previous meeting, to furnish a heating apparatus for the East Toledo new school be accepted.

Mr. Smead stated that he was present for the purpose of collecting some little bills due him and not for the purpose of donating a heating apparatus to the board. He stated, however, that inasmuch as the matter had come up, he was ready to make good his promise and asked if the board was ready to accept this offer.

A number of stationery and pencil agents were present and their bids opened.

Mr. Hubbard was made chairman of the fuel committee.

After some discussion a motion made by Mr. Eversman that the salary of the principal of the Sherman Street school, Mr. Konapak, be raised to $1,000, was carried.

The board as a body was invited to inspect Sherman Street school before the opening.

Mr. Broer moved that all principals in the 12-room buildings receive an advance in salary from $800 to $900. The board voted to sustain the motion, and then adjourned.

TO HARNESS NIAGARA.

Col. Henkle Still Talking on His Scheme.

He Says He is Going to Earn Six Per Cent Interest on Two Hundred and Fifty Six Millions.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 16.—Colonel Leonard Henkle, of Rochester, who recently laid before Mayor Bleicher of this city, and the officials of the Grand Trunk railway his scheme for harnessing Niagara water-power, now states that he is almost ready to make a start.

He proposes to construct a gigantic powerhouse across the brink of Niagara Falls for the purpose of generating electric power, to be used for lighting, running trains, and operating all kinds of machinery.

This power he claims to be able to transmit long distances. Plans for the powerhouse are now in preparation. It will be 1,100 feet high, will contain 4,000 windows, and have 13,670,000 feet of floor capacity. The materials used will be iron, steel, granite, marble, glass and copper, and the cost is to be $35,000,000.

Col. Henkle expects his enterprise to yield six per cent. on a capital of $256,000,000. Four years will be required to build the powerhouse, on which he expects to make a start in November.

CLOSE CALL.

Fostoria, Aug. 16.—(Special)—John Nicholson and daughter and another lady and her daughter were out riding last evening, when they narrowly escaped a horrible death. They were about to cross the Nickel Plate track when a wild locomotive and tender came thundering toward them. With rare presence of mind Mr. Nicholson turned his horse short about, precipitating the occupants down the embankment just as the engine brushed the wheel of the carriage. The buggy was overturned and completely demoralized, but none of the party severely hurt.

HORRIBLE BUTCHERY.

Mt. Vernon, Ill., Aug. 16.—The horribly mutilated body of Mrs. Lizzie Struber was found this morning on the roadside in the southern part of Marion county. She was last seen on Thursday night, driving on a lonely road. Three bullet wounds were found in her breast and both legs were cut off. There is no clue to the murderer, nor is there any motive known for the crime.

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 16.—A. H. Ashe, a prominent and well-to-do farmer living 20 miles north of here, was found dead yesterday on the highway. His body was riddled with bullets. His son, 20 years old, has been arrested, suspected of having committed the crime as he had been making threats to kill his father.

C. Y. M. N. U.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The national convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union assembled here to-day. The representatives from Chicago are using their influence to have the next gathering held in their city during the world's fair, and it is probable that this course will be decided upon.

BURNED OUT.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 16.—The residence of John M. Eisenmenger at No. 1015 Mound street, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Loss about $52,000; insurance, $35,000.

THE MYSTIC SHRINERS.

Grand Parade in the Streets of Omaha.

Three Thousand Members in Attendance.

The Keys of the City Turned Over to Ancient Arabic Order—Routine Work.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 16.—Three thousand nobles with gleaming lances and brilliant apparel, on foot, in carriages and bestride gayly caparisoned camels, wended their way through the oasis of Omaha last evening.

The caravan was a magnificent spectacle, and as it wound around the trail leading from the temple through the haunts of the traders it was greeted with a grand display of bunting, illuminated with pyrotechnics.

Twenty thousand people gathered along the line of march and witnessed the grand parade of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine, now assembled in Omaha. Marching until 9 o'clock it was disbanded on Farnum street, after having been reviewed by Illustrious Potentate Briggs from the Baxton balcony.

Then came a grand reception to the nobles and their ladies, at which they were welcomed by Mayor Bemp, and given the key and the freedom of the city. The rooms of the temples represented here were crowded with nobles all day and far into the night, and there was music to beguile the senses and revive memories of other days.

The water bottles, long upon the backs of the camels, were opened and the sojourners drank deep of the refreshing liquid. Then for those who desired deeper draughts there were punch bowls, presided over by dusky sons of the desert, and other refreshments worthy of the travelers who had journeyed hither from every state in the union.

The Imperial council opened in the morning at 9 o'clock in the Masonic temple. Illustrious Potentate Sam Briggs called the council to order and Imperial Recorder Frank M. Luce called the roll. Immediately after the call, Potentate Briggs delivered his annual report. Among other things he said:

"Illustrious associates: Again I have the pleasure of greeting the imperial body in annual congress assembled with the salutation ordained by the prophet (honored be his name) and in accordance with statutory regulations I present the report of the transactions of the imperial officers as far as the same may have come to my knowledge, with such recommendations as seem to be proper for your consideration."

He then quoted statistics showing that there were in this country 62 temples and 22,789 nobles, against 13 temples and 425 nobles in 1878. A grand achievement for the few years elapsing since the introduction of the order in the Western Hemisphere, and a noble organization whose light once kindled has never been extinguished at any oasis where a charter has been granted. An order not requiring to shine by borrowed light, but giving abundant tangible evidence of its ability to live and prosper in the light of its own beneficent and appreciated influence.

Of the fraternal dead Noble Briggs said: "While none of the active members of this imperial council have been summoned to the portals of the unseen temple during the past year, our altars have been draped in mourning for the demise of several prominent in the ancient Arabic order in America, as well as one who, by reason of his position of ruler in the east, had endeared himself to his people and to those of other nations who had been brought in correspondence with him by his many acts of courtesy and forbearance which would yield his memory additional glory by reason of the possession of those characteristics which should be common to all claiming membership in this oriental order. The list of those who have been called from among us is as follows:

"David Kalakaua, 33d degree, king of the Hawaiian islands, a noble of Islam temple, San Francisco, Cal., died at San Francisco, January 20, 1891.

"William Jermyn Florence, 33d degree, grand shireef of Mecca temple, New York, and representative of the temples in the east, died at Philadelphia, Pa., November 19, 1891.

"Tewfik Mohammed Pasha, Viceroy Khedive of Egypt, died at Cairo, Egypt, January 7, 1892.

"Edward Mitchell, 33d degree, right worshipful grand treasurer of the grand lodge A. F. and A. M., of Ontario, a noble of Alkorah temple, of Cleveland, O., died at Buffalo, N. Y., February 22, 1892.

"William Franklin Baldwin, 33d degree, right worshipful senior warden of grand lodge A. F. and A. M., of Ohio, a noble of Alkorah temple, of Cleveland, O., died at Mount Vernon, O., April 3, 1892.

"Charles H. Harris, 33d degree, a noble of Medinah temple, of Chicago, Ill., died at Chicago, May 4, 1892.

"I have secured, as far as possible, sketches of the life and services of each of the above prominent members of our nobility, and the same are appended to this address for the consideration and recommendation of the proper committees."

At the conclusion of the address, which contained references to by-laws, charters, special dispensations, official visits, finance and accounts, new ritual, foreign correspondence, grievances and appeals, jurisdiction and laws, diplomas, and other features of the order, it was referred to a special committee appointed for that purpose.

The reports of the imperial treasurer, Joseph S. Wright, and the imperial recorder, Frank M. Luce, were then read and referred. The imperial recorder, in concluding his address, stated that the imperial council was entirely free from debt and had a balance of $16,571.42 in the treasury.

A recess for one hour was then taken to give the various committees an opportunity to report. At 11 o'clock the session of the council was resumed. The committee on jurisprudence at once made its report, and the active work of the session began. The question of limiting the number of temples in a state to three, recommended by the committee, called forth a great deal of oratory on the part of Moslems, and it was finally decided to leave the whole matter to the discretion of the imperial council.

CHOLERA REPORTS.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The authorities claim they have checked the cholera in this city as shown by the fact that only 12 deaths were reported yesterday. The official report shows that throughout the cholera infested districts of Russia the daily average was 8,001 new cases and 4,268 deaths from the disease, or about 50 per cent. of deaths.

BUCHANAN WILL RUN.

Nashville, Aug. 16.—Gov. Buchanan has at last announced himself an independent candidate for governor. He has a long card in the papers this morning placing himself before the people free from all classes. He says he loves democracy but citizens have called on him to run and he will do it.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

St. Marys, O., Aug. 16.—(Special)—John Greer, of McCartysville, Shelby county, had his leg smashed to a jelly under a traction engine this morning.

His condition is critical, blood poisoning having set in.

DIED AT 60.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—Edward T. Steel, ex-president of the Philadelphia board of education, and a prominent citizen and merchant, died last night at Spring Lake, N. J., from chronic dyspepsia. He was aged 60 years.

FINANCIAL TROUBLE.

Chelsea, Vt., Aug. 16.—The property of C. H. Abbott & Co., owners of shoe factories in Chelsea and South Royalton, has been attached.

H. C. NUTT DEAD.

Boston, Aug. 16.—Col. Henry Clay Nutt, formerly president of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company, died to-day. He was 59 years of age.

THE DOW TAX.

Columbiana County's Treasurer Makes a Claim Against a Brewery.

Cincinnati, Aug. 16.—Monday morning a letter was received by the John Kauffman Brewing company from Treasurer Garregues, of Columbiana county, notifying them that certain taxes, amounting to $847.27 had been placed on the duplicate under the Dow law, for sales by Fred Oshman, the company agent at East Liverpool.

The company referred the treasurer to Oshman, and deny any liability for the tax.

To a Post reporter, Emil Schmitt, vice president and treasurer of the John Kauffman Brewing company, thus explained the matter:

"Oshman is not our agent. He buys directly from us and sells at his own profit. He is agent for our brand, but not of our company. Hence there is no liability on our part for Dow tax.

"On the other hand, we have an agent at Steubenville to whom goods are consigned in the company's name, but in his care. He is paid a salary, and the records of Jefferson county will show that we pay the Dow tax, because in that case we are liable."

A suit will probably be brought in Columbiana county for the amount due. The aggregate of such indebtedness from wholesalers interested is put at $8,000.

THE FORESTERS.

Thousands of Toledoans Participate

In the Liberty Day Exercises at the Exposition Grounds—The Winners of the Prizes.

Foresters' Day did not go by without a proper celebration in Toledo. Far from it. Other days may have come and gone without having been heralded in or bowed out, but Forester's Day came in with a bang and went out only when it had to, at midnight, and then it was loth to go, for it had plenty of fun in Toledo.

That the Foresters have friends, the fact that nearly 200 prizes were donated by the business men for their races and over 5,000 people gathered at the Exposition grounds, "just to give the place a tone," is convincing evidence.

The races were interesting throughout, and there were no squabbles so common among contestants. Everything went off on the brotherly love plan, and the sisters were in it also, by the way.

It was 10 o'clock last evening before the Forester's and their friends left the grounds. It was a big day all around, and everybody commenced right away to look forward to Foresters' Day, 1893.

The free-for-all trot was the feature of the day.

The entries embraced some good records and the people witnessed a horse race as was a horse race.

The judges were Mayor Emmick, Judge Sala and Capt. Shipherd.

Geo. H. Ketcham acted as starter, Robert Raitz timer, and Chas. Jones secretary.

The entries were: Willard M., owned by V. H. Ketcham; Patsey Collins, Brewery Boy, and Little Tony, owned by Al. Baldwin, and Pacific Slope.

The first heat, Little Tony held the lead for the first quarter, then went off his feet, alternating between third and fourth, finishing third.

Willard M. took first place and held it. Patsey Collins finished second, Little Tony third, Pacific Slope fourth, and Brewery fifth. The time was 1:18.

Willard M. took the second heat, Patsey Collins finishing second, Brewery Boy third, Little Tony fourth, Pacific Slope fifth; time, 1:16 1-2.

The next heat Billy Wilson drove Patsey Collins and Anson drove Little Tony. Pacific Slope went to the barn. Little Tony won the heat, Willard M. second, Patsey Collins third, and Brewery Boy fourth.

Little Tony won the next heat Brewery Boy finishing second, Willard M. third and Patsey Collins fourth; time, 1:18 1-2.

The next heat Willard M. finished first, Little Tony second, Brewery Boy third, and Patsey Collins fourth; time, 1:12 1-2. This gave the race to Willard M.; second prize to Little Tony, third to Brewery Boy, and fourth to Patsey Collins.

In the quarter mile running race Birdie won first money, Captain Todd second, and Tiye third.

There were only two starters in the race between aged horses, and Sam Tanner won first prize and George Gross second. Time, 2:20, half mile.

The other races and contests were disposed of as follows, between heats of the horse races:

Pneumatic bicycle race—First prize won by John Perrin; second by Waite St. John.

Hard tire, mile, for men—First prize, bicycle outfit, Jesse Spore; second, bicycle shoes, G. W. Jacobson.

The winners of these two races then contested in a half-mile dash for a silk umbrella, which Perrin won.

Fred Smetz won first prize in a 100-yard running race, and Willie Morrow second.

A. Santer made a pretty half mile in lead of his competitors and won a coat and vest. E. L. Trowbridge came in second and won a vest.

O. Pecord turned out to be the best sparrer on the grounds, and carried off a fine pair of boxing gloves.

Miss Grace Hennig, after a plucky contest, won first in the girl's bicycle race. Miss Alice Neal made a close second.

Geo. Hennig ran a race for a watermelon and won it.

J. E. Ward captured a meerschaum pipe, as first prize in the old man's race, 50 yards. A. S. Mills came in second, taking a package of smoking tobacco.

J. G. Swindman won the free-for-all bicycle race.

Moss Math got a new hat for having the largest nose on the grounds.

Men's walking race, one-half mile—E. L. Trowbridge first prize, $10 pair of pants; second, John Smith, a $4 pair of shoes.

Half mile bicycle race for girls—First prize Jennie Haumel, toilet set; second, pair of vases.

Frank Wise captured the first prize in the fat men's race, a rocking chair; Ed Wise puffed in a good second, winning a picture frame.

Boys' race, 6 to 8 years old, 50 yards—Charles Peuchert, first prize, a suit of clothes; John Crisp second, a box of chewing gum.

Ladies' walking match, one-quarter mile—Miss Agusta Suetike first prize, gold pen and holder; Hattie Demery second, gold ring.

Most Popular Man.

One of the very interesting contests on the grounds was the voting for the most popular Forester. The balloting was spirited throughout the day, and when the result was announced it was found that W. F. Wilson had won. The prize was a beautiful badge from Roulet & Armstrong, and to-day Billy Wilson is the proudest man on Summit street.

SPLIT IN TWO,

And the Council Agrees to Pay the City Taxes

Claimed by Treasurer Hunter—Result of the Conference Between County Officials and Ways and Means Committee.

The ways and means committee of the city council took another turn at the city's tax delinquencies last evening.

County Treasurer Hunter made a statement showing what resources the city had from the June collection of taxes, the gist of which appeared in the Bee a few days since.

Solicitor Read stated that if the people would pay their taxes promptly the city would not be in such stringent circumstances. He said that assessments have not been paid, for which improvement bonds have been issued. The bonds and interest mature and the city is compelled to pay them whether the taxes have been paid or not.

Mr. Read stated further that the city had better pay its taxes, even if the city officials had to whistle for their salaries. If the taxes were allowed to go unpaid the city would be sued, and just as soon as judgment would be rendered, the sinking fund would have to pay the amounts. This fund, he said, was in no shape to stand such a draft. It would set a bad example. To tap the sinking fund established a dangerous precedent. This fund backs every bond the city issues, and if it is depleted the city's credit vanishes, and all hope of future sale of bonds might as well be abandoned.

Mr. Morris made a motion that the county treasurer be instructed to advance $30,000 from the undistributed funds of the June tax collection to the credit of the general fund of the city. Mr. Leroux seconded.

Auditor Pheatt said that it would not be good business policy to exhaust all financial support and then expect the city department to continue to operate. During the next five months he would have $44,927.50 to meet and it would be a terrible thing to look in the face with an empty treasury to do it with. He said that in a conference with County Prosecutor Barber it had been agreed to divide the taxes, pay half at once and the other half when the December collection is made. It was thought that the board of education assessment, amounting to $17,296.43 would be a fair division.

Mr. Barber confirmed this statement, as did Mr. Hunter, and a motion to this effect was approved, and the council adopted the resolution.

City Auditor's Office.

Toledo, O., August 4, 1892.

The City of Toledo, by its Board of Park Commissioners, and the undersigned, invite sealed proposals at this office to

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1892,

at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purchase of City of Toledo Park Bonds to the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), issued in pursuance of authority conferred by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, and resolution of the Board of Park Commissioners, for the purpose of providing means to pay for park lands. Said bonds are of the denomination of Five Hundred Dollars each, and dated July 1, 1892, to run for a period of 50 years from date, and are made payable at the Importers' and Traders' National bank, in the City of New York, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually at the same place, evidenced by proper coupons attached to said bonds.

No proposal will be accepted for less than par and accrued interest from date of said bonds to date of delivery at Toledo.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the bonds, so bid for, as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made (if successful) will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and resolutions. When the bids have been examined, and the award made according to law, all monies or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the city auditor subject to his call, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered, and accepted as part payment of the bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement or refusal to accept and pay for the bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the city of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city, in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the "Auditor of the City of Toledo, Ohio," and be endorsed "Proposals for Park Bonds."

JAS. H. PHEATT, City Auditor.

"PHILIP, MY KING."

"Who bears upon his baby brow the round and top of sovereignty?"
Look at me with thy large brown eyes,
Philip, my King.
Round whom the purple shadow lies
Of babyhood's royal dignities.
Lay on my neck thy tiny hand
With love's invisible sceptre laden,
I am thine, Esther, to command
Till thou shalt have a queen handmaiden,
Philip, my King.

Oh, the day when thou goest a-wooing,
Philip, my King.
When those beauteous lips are suing,
And some gentle heart's bars undoing,
Thou dost enter, love crowned, and there
Sittest love glorified! Rule kindly,
Tenderly over thy kingdom fair,
For we that love, ah! we love so blindly,
Philip, my King.

Up from thy sweet mouth—up to thy brow,
Philip, my King.
The spirit that there lies sleeping now
May rise like a giant and make men bow
As to one heaven-chosen amongst his peers;
My Saul than thy brethren taller and fairer,
Let me behold thee in future years!
Yet thy head needeth a circlet rarer,
Philip, my King.

A wreath not of gold, but palm. One day,
Philip, my King.
Thou, too, must tread, as we trod, a way
Thorny and cruel, and cold and gray;
Rebels within thee and foes without
Will snatch at thy crown. But march on, glorious,
Martyr, yet monarch! till angels shout,
As thou sittest at the feet of God victorious,
"Philip, the King!"

"Wait a minute," said the Texas desperado who had been convicted of horse-stealing and murder.

"What's the matter now," asked the sheriff.

"I wish to ask a favor before I am taken to the scaffold."

"Well, what is it?"

"Let one of your deputies go upstairs and get my lucky penny."

In a prohibition town:

"How do you evade the law?" was asked of a Liquor dealer.

"What law?"

"Why, the law forbidding the sale of liquor?"

"My friend, you don't seem to understand that this is a prohibition state."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

George W. Cable was once clerk in the office of a cotton factor in New Orleans. Judge Tourgee's literary "decline and fall of" have set Cable's friends to wondering if he, still a young man, ought not to have higher things yet to achieve.

The finest piece of reporting done for some years on the other side of the water is said to be Richard Jefferies' description of a solitary walk across Exmoor in a glare of sunshine. It is printed in his "Red Deer." Of course Dickens still ranks as Great Britain's greatest reporter.

Louise Chandler Moulton is quoted in the Boston Herald as saying that she knows no man who likes women better than Thomas Hardy, "and there is nothing that a woman could possibly do that would seem to him wrong." This is a point of difference between Mr. Hardy and his readers.

Gen. Kiirby Smith's children all have "Kirby" in their names, and there are a good many of them. The Aldrich collection of autographs in Des Moines, Ia., has just been enriched by Gen. Smith's last official order in the confederate service commanding an aide at New Orleans to turn over some funds to Gen. Canby, the federal commander there.

The marriage of Helen Boulanger, second daughter of "le brave General," to M. Paul Auguez de Sachy, was celebrated in the most quiet manner at the Cathedral of Versailles, in contrast to the wedding of her younger sister, who married M. Driant in 1888.

The assistant secretary of war, Gen. Lewis A. Grant, is a stout, broad-shouldered, bald man of medium height, with long iron-gray side-whiskers. Previous to the creation, two years ago, of the office he now adorns, he was a Minneapolis lawyer. During the war he was general of volunteers.

Insects have recently destroyed whole forests in Powhatan county, Virginia, and among other trees the famous Pope's pine, a noted landmark in the Old Dominion. It stood for years on an eminence from which it was visible for 20 miles or more around, and towered high above all surrounding trees. In old times Col Pope, a local patriot, put a liberty cap like that stamped on our copper cent pieces on top of the tree, and every year when Fourth of July came around he celebrated the anniversary by holding a barbecue at the foot of the pine. This Col. Pope, who lived to be 90 years old, knew personally every president from Washington to Polk, and was a famous character in Virginia.

"Mickey" Shea and Sam Hillier Furnish Texts for Articles in the New York Papers.

Two Toledo boys, John J. Shea and Sam Hillier, are becoming quite noted characters. Both have had experience in Washington, and now they are in the swim in opposite directions in New York. The Herald and Sun have articles on the kids, the former dilating on Shea and the latter on Sam Hillier, as follows:

Mickey Shea.

People who visit democratic headquarters during the campaign will fall over a shock haired boy in loose fitting clothes, a head like a pineapple with brains bulging up in curious knobs and lumps all over it, and a face that at first sight would kill chickens if unexpectedly brought to bear on them. He wears his 15 years with the blase air of a man who has seen the world and doesn't think much of it.

This is "Mickey."

He confesses to the name of John Shea, but nobody who knows him would recognize him by any other name than "Mickey." He is a page in the house of representatives. He is but 15 years of age in point of regulation calendar reckoning, but in experience, knowledge and the ways of the vain world "Mickey" is something like 90. "Mickey" started out in business for himself at the age of 9 in Toledo, Ohio, where he was born. He was a bootblack and newsboy, and worked that combination as it is worked in western cities before the advent of the Italian stand for all it was worth. It is suspected that "Mickey" was too large for Toledo, for he began to extend his operations to surrounding cities. This was particularly the case when political conventions were in progress anywhere. He began at state conventions, and finally became a regular attendant at national conventions, and "Mickey" and his box thus began to become a recognized feature in political circles. "Mickey" carries the slouching, swinging gait of the typical bootblack with him to-day as plainly as if it were a cork leg. "Mickey's" advent into political life was the blacking the Honorable Frank Hurd's boots. It was this intimate contact with the great democratic free trader that resulted finally in "Mickey" becoming a democrat and free trader himself. Perhaps the Honorable Frank Hurd's boots may eventually be responsible for a new political star. At any rate they exercised a subtle influence on "Mickey," and from those boots he began to attend conventions—finally went to congress. I've known boots to take the ambition out of a man, but in this instance the effect was quite the contrary. For "Mickey" had put in every spare hour he could at night schools, and had sent himself to business college before he reached Congressional honors. He can write well, both long and short hand, and knows his p's and q's generally.

He was appointed a page in the house of representatives by the sitting member from Toledo, and selected for page at national democratic headquarters through the influence of Senator Brice.

"Mickey" didn't care to risk the Herald presses with his picture, but showed me the photograph of his girl as a picture that would beautify and adorn the pages of the most fastidious publication. She is certainly lovely. Her portrait was evidently obtained at the moment "Mickey" was saying something very nice to her, for her pretty head is slightly bent forward and her eyes modestly seek the carpet. Probably he asked her if she could bear to wait in such a town as Toledo until "Mickey" grew up to be a big politician and could provide a home for her on Connecticut avenue in Washington.

Sam Hillier.

Sam Hillier, a former newsboy from Toledo, who has been appointed confidential messenger to Chairman Carter at republican headquarters in New York, is quite a character in his way. He was a conspicuous figure at both of the national conventions. At Minneapolis he was always with the noisiest crowd, and at Chicago he earned several dollars trying to work up the Boles boom from a balcony in the Palmer house. Sam was a page in the capitol for a short time, but was too progressive for slow congressmen, and was removed.

When the special train for Washington correspondents left the Capital city for Minneapolis last June, Sam got aboard and secreted himself until after Harrisburg was passed. He was so humble that many of the correspondents asked the genial George W. Boyd, in charge of the train, to refrain from putting the stowaway off.

When the convention assembled at Minneapolis Sam appeared on the floor as presiding page. He then disappeared after striking many of the newspaper men for small loans, and nothing was seen of him until the democrats began to assemble at Chicago. The Boles boomers employed him to wave pictures of their favorite son from the balcony of the Palmer house. On one or two occasions Sam was pretty roughly handled, but he turned up as page in the wigwam, and now he further advances his political prospects as messenger to Chairman Carter. Sam may become a national issue yet.

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

POLITICS IN ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 16.—For the first time in the history of Missouri politics, the four parties have their headquarters in St. Louis, and as a result the city has a surfeit of campaigning.

The air is full of rumors of combinations, it being generally believed that a strong coalition has been made between the third party and the republicans whereby the labor vote will go to Warner for governor, and the republican vote very largely for the third party presidential electors. The third party leaders do not admit the existence of such an agreement.

If there ever was a specific for any one complaint, then Carter's Little Liver Pills are a specific for sick headache, and every woman should know this. Only one pill a dose. Try them.

RAISING THE CASH.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 16.—In accordance with a request issued by the national committee upon the occasion of its meeting in this city on the 5th of July, people's party clubs and labor organizations throughout the country will hold meetings this evening for the purpose of raising funds and arranging the details of the fall campaign.

To-day was fixed upon in recognition of its being the anniversary of the battle of Bennington. Republican clubs throughout the east will also hold meetings this evening for the purpose of organizing marching clubs, in response to a call issued by the league of republican clubs.

CAMP GATHERING.

Lena, Ill., Aug. 16.—The 22nd annual gathering of the Freeport District Methodist Camp-meeting association opened here to-day. The meeting is under the charge of Rev. F. A. Harden, D. D., presiding elder of the Freeport district. Many able leaders from a distance have been engaged, among them being Chaplain McCabe, Rev. H. W. Bolton, D. D., Rev. William Fawcett, D. D., Rev. W. A. Spencer, secretary of the Church Extension Society, and Rev. A. D. Tramiller, superintendent of the City Missions of Chicago. The Association has erected a large tent on the grounds that will seat fifteen hundred people, and a successful meeting is looked for.

DON'T DOSE THE BABY.

When She is Sick it is Usually From Want of Proper Diet, and Better Food is Necessary.

Frances Farr.

In Fort Ann, N. Y., there is a flourishing bit of babyhood with bright cheeks, fat and round as one of Blake's dream-children, who owes her health and happiness, like thousands of other children in this country, to lactated food. Fortunately the time has gone by when people believed that if baby was sick baby needed a dose of medicine.

People have begun to learn that medicines for infants are more sparingly used in physicians' families than in any others, and that the average physician, when the mother's milk, for any reason, is not quite sufficient, brings up his own children upon lactated food.

Mrs. Lucy D. Farr, the mother of the pretty baby whose likeness is here given, writes for publication:

"Lactated food is everything that it is recommended to be. My little girl Frances was fed on it from five months old. She was a very delicate baby, but as soon as she was put on the food she thrived wonderfully and now has very hard flesh, though, in addition to teething, she has had scarlet fever, whooping cough and la grippe. My physician says, of all the foods, lactated food is the best."

THE COUNCILMEN

Spent Half the Evening Considering Business

And Then Recessed Until Thursday—Another Tussel With the Natural Gas Price Ordinance—General Legislation.

The board of councilmen held a long and interesting session last evening.

On the first call a resolution to build a sidewalk on Fifth street from Starr avenue to French street was referred to the proper committee.

A communication from C. F. Imoberstag objecting to the drainage of water over his property on Western avenue was placed on file.

Mr. Miller presented a resolution requesting the city solicitor to draft the necessary legislation, prohibiting the driving of horses or mules on the street without the proper guidance by rein or otherwise, which was approved.

A resolution requiring the street commissioner to grade a proper approach at the foot of Pontiac street was adopted.

A resolution was adopted to open gutters as to permit proper drainage of New York avenue.

Mr. Tanner presented a resolution instructing the city clerk to advertise for bids for the drilling of an artesian well at the corner of Canton avenue and Smith street, which was adopted.

On the report of the sidewalk committee a resolution to build a sidewalk on Adams and Federal streets were laid on the table.

On report of the committee on sewers ordinance to construct sewer in Sylvan and Lane avenues, Washington street alley, a sewer in alley between Grand avenue and Elmwood avenue; alley north of Forrer street; alley south of Lafayette street; alley between Grand avenue and Fitchland avenue; alley between Washington street and Hicks street, were referred back to the committee.

An ordinance to construct a sewer in an alley between South and Boyd streets was tabled.

On business from the street committee a resolution to improve Hamilton and Twenty-second streets was referred back.

On the call of business from the board of Aldermen an ordinance to improve an alley between Broadway and Oliver street, was laid on the table. After the reading of two or three ordinances from this board the schedule was passed to unfinished business.

President Coleman presented a resolution appointing Mr. Osborne on the committees in which vacancies were incurred by the resignation of Mr. Swain, with the exception of the ways and means, to which he appointed Mr. Schmitt, and the streets, appointing Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee moved and amended that Mr. Osborne take Mr. Swain's seat on all of the committees, which carried, and the resolution as amended was approved.

On leave, Mr. Schmuhl presented a resolution to accept lot 12 and part of lot 11, in Earl's second addition, as a site for a fire engine house in the Ninth ward, at $1,000.

Mr. Gill, on a motion to table the resolution, raised the question as to incumbrances upon the property in the way of taxes and assessments. After some discussion the resolution was adopted.

J. H. Tappan submitted his name as a candidate for building inspector, on which no action was taken.

Engineer Miller recommended the appointment of John R. Page as inspector of the Maumee river dredging.

Mr. Manchester moved to substitute Joseph Nehr, which carried, Mr. Osborne voting for Page.

The ordinance to fix the price of natural gas was next taken up. Mr. Gill moved that the time be changed to read until September 1, 1893, which was lost, Messrs. Doner, Gill, Rutherford and Tanner voting for it.

Mr. Gill fired another motion that the ordinance be changed to read for all purposes other than school, city and county, the price to be 20 cents. This was lost.

Mr. Gill came again with a motion to change the ordinance fixing the price to public schools at 15 cents instead of 10 cents. This, however, received no second. The ordinance proper was voted upon and lost.

The board then took a recess until Thursday evening.

REACHING FOR THE COIN.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—The National Board of control of the world's fair, will hold a meeting this afternoon. The meeting was called for the purpose of charging the rules of the board in respect to Sunday closing as required by the act appropriating two and a half million dollars to that enterprise.

After the changes are made the amended rules will be submitted to the assistant secretary of the treasury and to the attorney general, and if the latter decides that the conditions of the bill are fulfilled, Mr. Nettleton will turn the money over to the fair officials as soon as it is minted.

FAILED TO APPEAR.

Dublin, Aug. 15.—The Rev. Father Humphreys, known as the "patriot priest," and others accused of riot at Tipperary during the recent elections, failed to appear before the magistrates to-day in answer to the summons served upon them and warrants were issued for their arrest.

TOBACCO REVENUES.

London, Aug. 15.—The annual report of the customs receipts shows that the revenues from tobacco for the past fiscal year has been the biggest on record. The chief increase is in the use of the dry western tobacco from America.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Elder Updike Criticised.

To the Editor: Some of the numerous readers of your valuable paper may not have heard of the tent meetings on Bancroft street, that have been in operation for three or four weeks past. There are some of the performances that are very pleasing, the singing is good, the audience is good, but the style and manner of the preaching is very objectionable. The object and aim of all such meetings (as we have been taught) is the conversion of souls, and to get a little money. The reports are that the meetings have nearly been a failure.

Why is it thus? If the doctrines of the New Testament are true the conversion of the sinner and preparation for another state of existence should be the most solemn and important subject that could engage the human mind. When Jesus Christ was on earth and talked to the people, he did not descend to low and vulgar expressions for the purpose of creating merriment and loud laughter. He did not stoop to tell them nonsensical, foolish and false tales. He said "He was about His Master's business." Read the history of all the preachers of the past, and the great urmy that are in the field to-day. Their object was and is that Jesus died to save a lost and ruined world. They had no time to tell foolish stories that would bring the blush of shame to hundreds. Would the immortal Wesley say to a young man whom he wished to save from the bad habit of smoking a cigar or cigarette, "You put me in mind (when you are smoking) of a fool at one end of the cigar and a little fire at the other, and a very big stink in the middle?" No, no! These great and good men believed that all things should be done in decency and in order, so that the mind should not be drawn from the great subject in hand, the soul's salvation. This preacher stops in his discourse to tell how a little boy was throwing stones at some young goslings and killing them, giving as a reason that they may be all ganders when they get bigger and he did not like ganders because an old gander hurt him once. And again he tells a low foolish story about a little boy whom he says owned part of a cat. His sister owned the head, his mother the body, and the little boy the tail, so one day the cat was heard to make a fearful noise and the mother asked her son the cause. He said he was playing with his part of the cat, but sister's part did not like it.

This man prays to God that sinners may come and be baptized. God does not answer his prayers in this respect, but he says that he did pray once for an earthquake at one of his meetings and God did not understand him correctly for he sent a literal instead of a moral earthquake, which was asked for. He also prayed to God to send a cyclone and he heard his prayer and sent the cyclone.

Then again this preacher says that an old man objected to his wife being baptized because he was certain it would give her the quinsy, but he prayed that the old man should have the quinsy. And he did have it, bad. Now he says that God heard his prayer in these cases and answered.

Would it not be a good and wise thing for this man to try his hand on some other subject? Let him ask his God to send a blessing on some one instead of a curse, some great blessing to the human family. Hear the cry that comes up from the famine stricken land of Russia with no men to pray. If there is a God to hear the prayer of a poor, silly man that asks him to send a curse on a man or men and will not hear prayer for removal of disease, famine, earthquakes, cyclones, fire and floods, what do you think of such a God? Is it not the worst kind of blasphemy to charge God with hearing and answering such foolish prayers? He also tells us how he converted a young man once by throwing watermelon skins at him. This puts me in mind of a man I read of in an old book. I do not know whether it is true or not, but he says, "Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile." The end justifies the means was the policy according to which he regulated his practice. Policy, craft, and guile were all he could do; he could lie for his own cause and then justify it, "For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my life unto his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner?" TRUTH.

Sympa—

Bah! A woman doesn't deserve any sympathy, when the knowing better is so easy and the doing better is so cheap.

Think of inhaling this steam and these odors from a tub of dirty clothing, perhaps from the sick room, perhaps much soiled from honest labor. Think of the weak lungs, and throat, the germs of disease, etc., etc. It's all so unnecessary and so ineffective. The clothes are not as clean (surely not as pure) as they ought to be, when the work is done.

Boil your clothes in Pearline and water—directions on each package—every grocer has it—and germs cannot live, dirt cannot stay, and the hard work, the drudgery, is done away with.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back. 354 JAMES PYLE, New York.

MARKETS OF THE WORLD

Condition of the British Grain Trade.

Live Stock in the Great American Yards.

The Grain Pits of the Globe Reviewed —What Is Taking Place on the Toledo Exchange.

Speculation in wheat has come to be a dragging and uninteresting business in all the markets. Low prices discourage speculation. What makes low prices just now? The movement from farmers' hands is too large. More wheat is received at points of concentration than is needed and prices of futures do not justify holding and selling for October or December. While the export movement has been very good indeed, it has the effect to depress foreign prices, and quiets all solicitude about future supplies. If farmers' work does not soon decrease the movement of winter wheat, we shall soon see the aggregate increased by new wheat from the northwest.

Stocks abroad are above average and the crop news in England—on the continent and in Russia, does not encourage hopes of immediate advance of prices.

The latest Kansas crop report by Secretary Mohler estimates the crop of that state at 65,000,000 bu. It is stated that the wheat is moving into the markets very freely.

There is nothing new of importance. There is plenty of talk of what some house is buying or selling, but it is of no moment. It is little account what anyone does until receipts decrease. From seven western points, 342,000 bus. more than on same Tuesday in 1891. It has a depressing effect on markets. Prices to-day, on wheat and corn both, have been weak and declining. Everywhere markets are dull and no encouragement to bull wheat, and it is too low to sell it short.

Foreign markets close dull and lower.

In New York, September wheat closed at 82 5-8c, a loss of 1-2c. September corn at 59c, a loss of 1-4c. September oats at 37 3-4c, a loss of 3-4c.

In Chicago August wheat closed at 76 7-8c, a loss of 3-8c; September at 77 1-8c, a loss of 1-2c. August corn at 52 5-8c, a loss of 1-2c; September at 52 1-4c sellers, a loss of 1-2c. September oats at 33 1-8c, a loss of 5-8c.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 163,220 bu., and at five other western points 1,192,588 bu.; aggregate, 1,355,808 bu. On the corresponding Tuesday in 1891 the receipts were 1,003,495 bu., showing an excess today over 1891 of 352,313 bu.

The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were 342,371 bu., and flour to an aggregate of 400,000 bu.

English markets as reported herein open dull and lower for wheat and corn.

In Toledo there has been a fair business reported for December and a little for August, but September was dead dull and not a trade reported on the regular board. Opening trades were at yesterday's closing prices from which there was a slight decline, August closing 3-8c, September 3-8c and December 1-4c lower. On the call August sold at 79 1-8c to 79c, September at 79c, December 81 7-8c. On the regular board August sold at 79 1-8c and closed at 78 3-4c. September closed at 78 3-4@79 3-4c, December at 82c and closed at 81 3-4c.

Cash wheat was in fair demand for No 2 and 3 soft; No. 2 sold at 78 3-4 to 79c and closed at 78 3-4c, a loss of 3-8c. No. 3 soft sold at 73 and at 73 1-2c in L. S., closing at 73c. On the call No. 3 for September at 73 1-2c; No. 4 soft at 68 and 69c in L. S. Rejected No. 1 at 71c sample. Smutty at 68c; No. 2 white at 75c.

Corn—No. 2 about 52c. No. 3 about 50c. Rye—No. 3 at 61c, and in L. S. at 62c. No. 2 worth about 67c. Clover seed was very weak and declined 20c per bu. October opened at $6.00, and closed at $5.90. November opened and closed at $5.90.

Closing in New York.

New York, Aug. 16.—Money 1 1-2@2 per cent. Exchange quiet and steady; posted rates $4.87 1-2@4.89; actual rates $4.86 3-4@4.87 for 60 days and $4.88@4.88 1-4 for demand. Governments steady; currencies 107 bid; 4s coup 115 1-2 bid; extended 2s registered 100 bid.

Stocks continue dull. This morning only 66,337 shares were traded in. Notwithstanding the extreme dullness the temper of speculation was firm. Western Union opened at par and reacted to 99 7-8. Later in the morning it again advanced to par. At noon values were generally above those of yesterday. At 1 p. m. there is nothing doing.

New York, Aug. 16.—Flour dull; city mill extra $4.30@4.45 for West Indies; Minneapolis spring wheat low extra $2.90@3.25; fine, $1.65@2.10; superfine, $1.75@2.35. Wheat opened weak and continued so throughout the morning. At noon prices were off 3-8c; No. 2 red winter, 83 1-4c cash; August 82 1-4c; September, 82 7-8c; October, 84 1-4c. Corn opened weak and 3-8c lower, but subsequently rallied 1-8c; No. 2 mixed cash, 62c; August, 60c; September, 59 1-8c; October, 58 3-4c.

Oats dull but steady; No. 2 mixed cash, 38 1-2c; August, 37 7-8c; September, 38 1-8c. Rye—Slow at 68@72c for carlots. Barley dull and neglected. Molasses dull; New Orleans, 30@35c. Cotton.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—The market is quiet. Middling at 7 1-6c. Receipts 200 bales, shipments 4,000 bales, sales none, stock 49,800 bales.

Memphis, Aug. 16.—Cotton—The market is easy. Middling selling at 7c. Receipts 47 bales, shipments 523 bales, stock 26,960 bales, sales none.

Dry Goods.

New York, Aug. 16.—Business in dry goods opened with an advanced demand at the hands of both agents and jobbers. Prints were especially active, and there was a good request for staple cottons, dress goods and flannels. The tone of the market was strong, with goods of the print cloth grade firmer. Edwards' cambrics were advanced 1-8c a yard. This is the tendency of low grades stuffs, and the influence is widening. The jobbing trade was fairly active in prints and other specialties, and promises a good general trade. Business in clothing woolens was steady, but the market is in better position than anticipated through the large demand for heavy goods.

Turpentine.

Wilmington, Aug. 16.—Steady at 26@26 1-2c.

Charleston, Aug. 16.—Steady at 26c.

Savannah, Aug. 16.—Quiet at 26 3-4c.

British Grain Trade.

London, Aug. 16.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: English wheats are in large supply and the prices show an average fall of 6d. The existing reserves are estimated at 860,000 quarters. The weather favors the harvest. The wheat crop is now expected to reach 8,250,000 quarters, which will be about 500,000 quarters under the yield of 1891. Barley promises an average yield of better quality than usual. Oats will yield 10 per cent. below the average. The market for foreign wheats has varied. Indian shows an advance of 3d on final crop reports showing that the yield is seriously deficient. There has been a rise of 3d in American, owing to the lessened promise of the spring wheat crop, but Russian wheat is 6d lower. The first official estimate of the wheat crop of Russia places the yield at 35,000,000 quarters, including the crop in the Caucasus and in Poland. This is 8,000,000 over the trade estimates. Though the report is hardly credited it has shaken the wheat prices in Eastern Europe. The total yield in France is calculated at 36,000,000 quarters of fine milling wheat. Corn is a turn dearer. American is held for 23s. Barley, beans and oats are quiet. To-day's market closed fully 6d lower for English and foreign wheats. Barley and oats each declined 3d. English and American flours declined 6d. Corn was firm. Linseed was 6d dearer.

JOHN GUNCKEL'S IDEA

One Which Will Bear Some Thought.

What Toledo Merchants Can do to Popularize the City and Rake in the Shekels at the Same Time.

The advisability of Toledo merchants extending some inducement to residents of adjoining towns that will get them into Toledo to trade has often been discussed and deemed a wise move, but no action has ever been taken.

"The wisdom of such a venture was aptly illustrated this morning," remarked John E. Gunckel, traveling agent of the Lake Shore, to a Bee. "We brought in over 750 people from Bryan and intermediate points, who came to Toledo for a day's outing and to buy goods. The excursion includes boat tickets to Presque Isle. Now the merchants of Toledo ought to organize a stock company and buy Presque Isle and run it as a summer resort for the benefit of their customers. This may appear absurd on the face of it, but to look into the details of such a plan there is something in it. Now, we brought in 750 to-day. Other lines may bring in the same number; perhaps more, perhaps less. At any rate, it is safe to estimate that there are from 500 to 1,000 strangers in Toledo from adjoining towns every day.

"By some special inducement these numbers could be largely increased and the merchants would not be complaining of dull trade during the summer months."

MIKE DECLINED.

Bully as He Was He Was Bull-Dozed by a Stranger.

"A few years ago a bully known as 'Big Mike' was the terror of Southern Wisconsin," said Patrick O'Farrell at the Lindell. "Big Mike was monarch of all he surveyed and his rights there was none to dispute. Janesville, Beloit and Waukesha were his favorite haunts. He was always spoiling for a fight, and as he stood six feet six and was put up like a Hercules nobody cared to accomodate him, and, like Arkansaw in Mark Twain's o'ertrue tale, he traveled chiefly on his bluff and bad looks. One night Mike was in a Waukesha saloon kept by a German with the patriotic name of Yankee. Mike was hungry for trouble. He insulted everybody present, imposed on the bartender and made himself a disagreeable nuisance generally.

Presently a tall, gaunt, consumptive-looking chap drifted in. He looked as though a good stiff breeze would blow him away. He lounged up to the bar and in a voice sweet and deferential as that of a bashful school girl called for brandy and soda. Mike swaggered up to him and announced his intention to drink at the stranger's expense. The latter paid no attention to him, swallowed his fire-water and turned away. Mike became abusive. He followed him about the room, cursing him and making pugilistic demonstrations.

Finally the consumptive looking stranger turned and sweetly said: "My Christian friend, you appear to be yearning for a thrashing. Be kind enough to give me your address and I will send you home to your family when I get through with you.' He handed Mike a note book and pencil, and carefully removed his coat. The cool audacity of the stranger paralyzed Mike. He tried to crawfish, but the stranger wouldn't have it. 'I've heard of you for two years past, and I came to Waukesha especially to whip the insolence out of you,' he said, 'and right here we mix.' But they didn't. Mike made a break for the door, and has not been in Waukesha since. It was a beautiful bluff. The thin stranger could not have hurt him with a hammer. He died two weeks later with consumption."—Detroit Tribune.

A QUEEN'S INCOME.

Inasmuch as a question was raised the other day in the Spanish cortes as to the amount of the queen regent's income from the state, it may be of interest to state, says the New York Recorder, that, although entitled to a jointure, as widow of the late king, amounting to $100,000 a year, she has refused to draw a single cent thereof since his death.

She administers the revenues of her little son and of her daughters with the greatest care and economy. The little 5-year-old king has a civil list of $1,450,000 a year. His eldest sister, now about 9 years of age, has a fixed income of $100,000.

Ex-Queen Isabella receives $150,000 per annum, which is very far from covering her expenses, and she is invariably head over ears in debt, so much so indeed that she has frequently been placed in the most embarrassing situations.

Her husband, on the other hand, who lives apart from her, and has a separate household of his own, is noted for his sordid avarice, and does not spend more than $20,000 out of the $60,000 which he receives from the Spanish nacion each year.

The oldest sister of the late king, Princess Isabella, countess of Girgenti, figures on the civil list for $50,000 a year, but I doubt if she spends it, as she lives all the year round with the queen regent and the little king, to both of whom she is warmly attached.

We Do Not

Carry a stock of inferior Diamonds.

Deal in imperfect and poorly cut stones.

Consider it good business policy to ask our patrons to invest their money in a class of Diamonds whose market value is uncertain and which has a constant tendency to depreciate.

We Do

Carry the most perfect assortment of fine Diamonds in the state.

Offer Diamonds that are perfect in color and cutting and which have been selected with great care by members of our firm in Paris, Amsterdam and London.

Surround buyers with every possible safeguard, and guarantee their investment perfectly secure.

Diamonds purchased from us will not depreciate in value, as all fine gems are steadily advancing in price.

A CHINESE SUPERSTITION.

But Every Celestial Does Not Believe in It.

Mr. Pung of the Chinese legation is authority for the statement that a Chinaman can wish for no better luck than to have a strange dog come to his house with the evident intention of linking his future fortunes with those of the family. This is especially true of Pekin, where stray canines, instead of being summarily dismissed from the doorstep, as is the general custom elsewhere, are taken in, carred for, and their lives thenceforth surrounded with the comforts most appreciated by their race. So great, indeed, is the superstitious feeling that no pains are spared to induce the stranger to remain permanently with the new-found friends.

Whether or not a love of dogs is a national characteristic of the Chinaman I cannot say, remarks a writer in Kate Field's Washington, but that it was not inherent in the predecessor of the present minister I can vouch for. It was at an afternoon tea at which Mrs. Hicks-Lord, seated upon a sofa, was conversing with the minister upon the mystic proprieties of the jadestone ring conspicuously worn upon his thumb. The minister was dwelling with great stress upon the fact that by wearing this peculiar ornament he insured himself against mental or physical harm of every description, when into the assemblage walked the Misses Patten, followed by a St. Bernard and greyhound. The minister rose in the greatest trepidation at sight of the dogs, while his complexion took on an olive hue several shades lighter than ordinary. As the great animals threaded their way among the guests toward the sofa, the minister, unable to control his feelings, gave one horrified exclamation as he ran behind some heavy furniture and crouched in the corner. How long the minister might have remained in his ignominious position will never be known, as he was recalled by Mrs. Hicks-Lord leaning over the back of the sofa with the blandly sarcastic request that he would emerge from his hiding place to continue the interesting discourse on the harm dispelling properties of the jadestone.

THE GREAT PSYCHO.

That George Francis Train has parted company with humanity—so far as participating in humdrum joys and sorrows of life is concerned— was signally illustrated during the recent hot spell, says the New York Advertiser. Arrayed in immaculate white duck, the Sage of Madison Square was each morning promptly in his place, with not a trace of the torrid weather on his leonine brow. In fact, he looked cool and comfortable ,and declared he felt so when a stranger asked him if it was hot enough.

"The psychic power," he added, "that rests within me is too much even for our old friend, General Humidity. The General is a psycho, too, but of a lesser magnitude. I am the grand, the all-pervading psycho; compared with me the subpsychos, which exist in myriad form, are like ripples on the bosom of the great deep. There are but two master psychos—the sun and myself. We work in unison; our interests never conflict. Interdependence is the great law of psychic force. Prostration by the heat is a condition that never confronts me. It would break the psychic chain, prevent the grounding of the helio current, and what would become of the earth?"

The king of Siam has built a glass house in the midst of a shuteway. The walls, floors and ceiling are formed of different sorts and thicknesses of glass. A single door closes hermetically, and when he goes in he opens a reservoir and submerges his house, with the effect of producing a particularly cool and pleasant atmosphere

MARRIAGE IN SLAVE TIMES.

"How many times have you been married, George?" asked an Indianapolis reporter of an ancient darky.

"As far as I can remember now I have had 34 wives. I was married to a bright mulatto womann in Montgomery, Va., and we had one child. But I was sold away from them, and I have never seen or heard from either of them since."

"What kind of a ceremony did you have to go through?"

"Bless you, we had no ceremony. When negroes got married the man's friend held one end of a broomstick and the woman's friend the other. Then the bridegroom would jump over it and the bride would follow suit, and then they would kiss each other.

"Then they were married and the jollification began. So far as I can remember, I am the father of 52 children, but like my wives they were always taken away from me or I from them.

"One of my masters, George Oliver, tied my wife to a tree and whipped her with a blacksnake in a terrible manner. I was right there, handcuffed, and could not help her at all.

"When I asked him not to whip her I was told to keep still or I would get a double dose. The last time I heard of Oliver he was a beggar, going from house to house to get something to eat."
